

THIRTY-FOOT UNCLE SAM greets 77,000 fans (left), six-foot Bob Campbell (23) thrills them (above), and the two-foot Orange Bowl trophy returns to Penn State, symbolizing a most fantastic football victory.

A Bowl Win, an Undefeated Season, a Dream Fulfilled... See Sports Section

Mostly cloudy and cold today and tonight with occasional snow or snow flurries. High near 25. Low 12. Partly cloudy, windy and bitter cold tomor-row with temperatures in the teens.

The Dailu

Collegian

Bookstore?

--See Page 2

VOL. 69, No. 49

16 Pages

UNIVERSITY PARK, PA., TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 7, 1969

SEVEN CENTS

Letters Sent to Senators Discovered

Keeler's Protests Bookstore Report

Books Cost How Much?

Collegian Staff Writer

The University Senate approved the report of the Senate Bookstore Committee last month despite objections raised by a bookstore owner in a letter sent to a number of Senators before the Dec. 3 Senate meeting.

Senate meeting.

Ben Swanson, president of Keeler's charged that the bookstore report "was not an objective, impartial analysis of the problem but an accumulation of somewhat questionable data to support a predetermined conclusion."

The Daily Collegian discovered a copy of the letter late yesterday. The Collegian was also a ble to learn that the letter was sent to a number of influential members of the University Senate.

to a number of influential members of the University Senate.

Asked for Support

In the letter, Swanson asked the Senators for their "active, on the floor support" as long time friends of Keeler's "to present our case and record of 42 years of service to Penn State."

Swanson was unavailable for comment last night.

In approving the bookstore report opposed by Swanson, the Senate has recommended that the University establish an on-campus. University owned and operated University establish an on-campus. University owned and operated bookstore.

When shown a copy of the letter, Peter D. Bennett, charman of the former bookstore committee and associate professor of marketing, called Swanson's opinion "blatantly false," saying that 'this accusation of intellectual dishonesty on the part of committee members by Mr. Swanson is unfounded."

Conservative View Taken
Bennett stated that "a number of deliberate attempts were made to insure that we were not moving toward a recommendation that could not be supported by substantial evidence." He pointed out that "the assumptions underlying nearly all of the cost and revenue data were made in a most conservative manner," and that "a similar conservative view of the financial analysis was taken from start to finish."

Swanson also wrote that "the primary causes of textbook shortages have been inaccurate enrollment estimates coupled with an admittedly weak pre-registration system."

Bennett said in response that the committee "never quarreled with the fact that there are communications problems related to the assurance of an adequate supply of books" Bennett contended that "a careful reading of the report will show, in fact, that this very problem to which Mr. Swnason points is one of the strongest reasons for the proposal that the University have under its control a store providing the bulk of the textbooks for the students. The improved communication that The improved communication that comes with this control, as well as the ability to insure liberal buying practices, speaks for, not against, a University bookstore."

Questioned Appropriateness

Questioned Appropriateness

Swanson stated that, as a contributor to and receiver of the Ernst and Ernst a c c o uniting surveys, he is 'well acquainted with the validity and omissions in these compilations' and that he has 'observed and investigated the accounting practices of several institutional bookstores over the last ten years and feels justified in questioning the appropriateness of their cost accounting.'

Concerning the second outside professional source of data for the bookstore report, Swanson argues that 'Mr. Henry Berry is, as most consulting experts, a salesman consulting experts, a salesman selling two products — his services as a store planning designer but more important Mr Berry sells store fixtures — a mere $175,000

the (bookstore) report."

In response to these charges, Bennett said that "the facis rather than the opinions furnished to the committee by the consultant were what we held with greatest legitimacy." Concerning the accuracy of the Ernst and Ernst report Bennett said that "a careful reading of the Bookstore Comittee Report will point out that the committee was well aware of the relative accuracy of such of the relative accuracy of such studies. There is no claim anywhere that any of these figures are entirely precise. They were all used as points from which as received as a superscript of the superscript. accurate accurate as possible estimates were made."

were made."

In the bookstore report, which was approved at the Dec. 3 meeting of the Senate without any discussion, the committee concluded that "an on campus University owned and operated bookstore is both economically feasible and benefit to students and faculty. We therefore recommend that the University establish such a store."

The committee further recommended "that any profits generated by this bookstore be used for the benefit of the students" campus, centrally located, non-commercial bookstore."

The first benefit would be better control of orders and inventories. The report states that the downtown merchants do not want.

The report states that the downtown merchants do not want to inform each other concerning the number of texts ordered or the number of texts ordered or the number in stock and, therefore, a University bookstore would be able to correct shortages more easily and efficiently.

Another benefit would be better service to students and faculty following from better control of incentories and ordering. This will include the areas of reference works and lessure reading along with fextbooks and supplies for course work.

Intellectual Atmosphere.

The flurd main benefit is that the bookstore would be a welcome addition to the intellectual and cultural atmosphere of the University. The committee contended that a large supply of non-required books, expecially paperback books, could be kept in stock to serve the needs of the students and faculty.

The committee expects sales from a University books to rebetween $2 million and $2.5 million per year With sales of $1.5 million or an expenditure of $60 per student projected a profit of $9,000.

Editors, Writer PSU To Increase Win Honors

Collegian Editor Paul Levine has won first place and an $800 scholarship in the second of six monthly writing contests of the William Randolph Hearst

Also the Daily Collegian staff members were among 45 journalism students selected by The Newspaper Fund to participate in the second annual editing intern program. They were chosen out of 80 nominations made by colleges throughout the country.

Levine received the honor for his story "Walk With a Blackstone Ranger...To Find a Friend in Chicago" which appeared in The Daily Collegian's Orientation Issue, Sept. 15. The article, which told of Levine's run-in with a Blackstone Ranger two days before the Democratic Convention, was entered in the feature writing competition of the Hearst contest.

The story received a nearly perfect score from the judges. Levine is now eligible to compete for another scholarship in the final championship round to be held in Washington D.C. in April. Last March, as Collegian sports editor. Levine was awarded fourth place and a $300 scholarship from the foundation for his full page report of the NCAA wrestling championships held at Penn State.

The University's School of Journalism will receive matching grant of $800 in recognition of Levine's

Marc Klein, news editor, and Louis Rosen, staff writer, will receive a $500 scholarship after working eight weeks this summer as a copy editor for one of 45 participating newspapers.

A three-week intensive indoctrination in June will precede the assignment to the newspapers where Klein and Rosen will work the rest of the summer.

Its Black Role

Ths University will accelerate its role in aiding the culturally disadvantaged, will admit 2,000 additional students to the Commonwealth Campuses and will construct about $60 million in new facilities in 1969.

These and other goals were outlined by University President Eric A. Walker in an interview with the Centre Daily Times during the term

"We're entering our second year of expanding help offered to the underprivileged from our cities." Walker said. "We have an Upward Bound program, we're sending admissions personnel into the predominantly black high schools in an effort to help students enter the University and we're continually searching for qualified black faculty members. An additional $10 million in state appropriations will be needed in order to add 2,000 students to the Commonwealth campuses. Walker said. This would bring the University's state support to approximately $70 million.

Walker also reaffirmed that the University Park enrollment would remain at 25,000 and that no additional undergraduate dormitories would be built here. Construction of classrooms and other facilities, however, is expected to cost $40 million here and more than $20 million at the Commonwealth Campuses.

The 28-page report points out three main benefits of an "on-Shoplifting for 'Kicks' Linked to Students in the good old days the sticky fingered customer ald not be charged with shoplifting until he left a store with stolen merchandise. However, under a Pennsylvania law enacted within the past year, any attempt at concealing goods to avoid payment, whether or not they are removed from the premises, can result in a shoplifting charge.

By ROB McHUGH

Collegian Staff Writer Shoplifting isn't what it used to be.

Last year, State College police investigated 137 shophfting complaints. Most resulted in convictions before a justice of the peace, with a light fine imposed on shoplifiers. The high conviction rate, estimated at more than 90 per cent, is a result of shopowners' reluctance to press charges unless evidence is conclusive in their favor.

Penalties and Procedures

Shoplifting penalties vary greatly. A justice of the peace can levy lines ranging from $25 to $500, plus costs, and/or up to 90 days in juil

A person charged with shoplifting can appear before a justice, enter a plea of guilty and probably get off with a light fine. He alro can plead not guilty and engage a lawyer's services. If his case before the justice results in a conviction, he may appear for a jury trial.

State College Police figures indicate that the shoplifting problem becomes considerably worse when the University is in session. The number of investigated complaints all year are broken down as follows. January, 5. February, 4. March. 22. April, 23. May. 27. June. 8. July. 21. August. 21. September, 01. October, 17. November, 24. December, 3. Patrolman James F. Steller states that "the biggest portion of it (shoplifting) comes from University people." But he added that "there are more people than students invoived."

Charles C. Mong. executive digitation of the Scale College.

Charles C Mong, executive director of the State College Chamber of Commerce, said, "With 25,090 more people incidents on all levels increase from car accidents to sickness."

The beginning and the end of a term when stores are most crowded are the biggest times for the shoulders, managers agreed. One estimated that 70 per cent of his loste, occurred critic before term, break. Others compliance that the worst times are during sales, again because stores are crowded. That's the only time a shoplifter has a chance," one merchant said.

Looking for a Thrill

The shoplifter seems to be looking for kicks, or a new kind of game. Almost all complaints involve an item or items, rarely worth more than a few dollars, picked up by a person easily able to afford them. One merchant put it this way: "I don't think they consider it really stealing, it's more like getting something for nothing. I think it's psychological—like getting something for nothing. I think it's psychological—like getting something for nothing. I think it's paychological—like getting something for nothing. I think it's paychological—like getting something for nothing. I think it's paychological—like getting something for nothing. I then it's away with it. The students' common complaint is that the merchants have us over a barrel, they're (Continued on page eight)

World, National, State News See Pages 3 and 4

Shoplifting Hits Merchants

CAUGHT IN the act! No, but this is what it looks like. Downtown merchants have been plagued by shoplifting during the past few weeks. Recent reports from the Associated Press indicate that the holiday season has brought an epidemic of sneaky shoppers across the country.

Tenents Air Complaints

Collegian Staff Writer
Hearings on student housing in State College at the end of Fall Term brought various complaints against landlords and requests for a State-regulated system of rent control.
The hearing held New 22 in the V

of rent control.

The hearing, held Nov. 23 in the J. Orvis Keller Conference Center, was conducted by Rep. Rudolph Dininni (R-Dauphin County). Dininni is chairman of a special House committee investigating student housing in state colleges and universities.

Clarke T. Hess, legal counsel for the committee, was also present at the hearing.

Womer Testifies

First to testify was Jim Womer, Undergraduate Student Government president, who said students find themselves in a powerless situation because of their relatively we ak economic position. He favored rent control based on either the value of the property or its real estate tax.

Joe Myers, president of Town Independent Men's Council, asked for legislation that would give students access to all housing and a Stateregulated system of reat control.

Other complaints dealt with age discrimination and the withholding of damage deposits.

David R hoads (7th-accosting-Pittsburgh) said he was refused an apartment by Falk Realty Co. and Parkway Plaza because he was an undergraduate. Rhoads said he was 23 years old and had served two years in the Navy. Speaking about the problem of damage deposits. Howard Davidson (14-architecture-Aliquippa) claimed that landlords often withhold money from the deposits for alleged damage to the apartment, and students can do nothing about it.

Landlord Testifies

Landlord Testifies

J. Alvin Hawbaker, State College realtor and manager for 1,100 apartment units, testified that in 1957 President Eric A. Walker charged private enterprise with the task of providing housing for students. He said he thought it had done a "fair job" in providing reservers for students.

apartments for students.

Klaskey Not Satisfied

Terry Kaskey, vice president to TIM, said after the hearing that it "frankly didn't go as well as I thought it would."

"We don't expect any immediate action."

opportunity to testify at a tentative second hearing. For the committee to conduct the stigation again, they would have to reintroduce the resolution establishing the committee.

Homer To Introduce Resolution Klaskey said Rep. Max H. Horner (D-Allegheny), co-chairman of the committee, had promised to reintroduce the resolution.

Homer toured State College apartments Oct. 23 as part of the committee's investigation at the invitation of TIM.

At that time, he examined Bluebell apartments, 522 E. College Ave... University Towers, Americana Apartents, Southgate Drive, Whitehall Apartments and apartments owned by University professor Shiou-Chuan Sun.

After touring the apartments, Horner said, "All landiords who intend to rent to college students and personnel should be approved by the college." He proposed a rent control board for all state colleges and universities.

Homer was not present at the

A Bookstore and the Pressures: Who Will W

COME, YE faithful flock which laboreth in the shadow of the Nittany Lion. When was the last time a student government or publication demanded a University-operated bookstore?

Could it have been yesterday? Or the day before? No, it was not that recently. But it seems to be that short a tie because the University Park community has grown used to the endless debate on "the book-

Last year, for instance, we were told how inefficient the downtown bookstores are. We heard charges that students are being robbed by downtown merchantscharges which pictured helpless students victimized by marked-up prices and poor

We lent a sympathetic ear, however, to the responses rising from College Ave. The bookstore owners claimed that their profits were kept at a minimum, and that their inefficiency was caused by such marvels as the computer-age drop/add system, the lightening-quick term system and the fickle minded Penn State students—students who return and exchange books as quickly as they buy them.

So the debate has continued. Year after year, term after term. Sometimes quiet, only to be renewed periodically as student and faculty lost patience with the task of obtaining textbooks.

The never ending discussion made the bookstore question a boring topic. It always has been a complex subject, beyond the interest of the average student, who cares for little more than the final black-andwhite question: can he buy his books at a cheaper price?

Unfortunately, the problem cannot be solved with such simple questions. Numerous factors must be considered, such as overhead, competition and wholesale

Thus the bookstore problem seemed doomed to eternal discussion, until last spring a group of interested students and faculty members organized in the University Senate to from the Senate Bookstore

Committee.

PEANUTS

While the bookstore discussion plodded on, this committee produced the most complete, impartial study of the problem since the Nittany Valley saw its first textbook. The committee's final report stated that a University-operated store would offer better service to students and faculty members, and recommended that the University open an on-campus store. And, at its meeting last month, the Senate approved the report. Administrative studies and Board of Trustee approval remain, but Penn State took its first big step toward ending the bookstore debate and the confusion which marks the early-in-the-term ritual of buying books and supplies.

But yesterday The Daily Collegian discovered a letter sent to several Senate members by the president of one major downtown bookstore. This letter called the Bookstore Committee's report jective or impartial," and claimed that the downtown store had provided "42 years of service to Penn State.

Fortunately, the Senators who received this letter before their December meeting were not gullible enough to believe its contents. They did not believe that any merchants would consistantly place the Penn State students' interest above the goal of any business—that of making a profit.

We are inclined to accept the logic of Peter D. Bennett, head of the marketing department and chairman of the Senate's Bookstore Committee. He told the Collegian, in commenting on the letter sent to the Senators, "The committee felt that a number of benefits would accrue to the University community through the establishment of a bookstore.

"Many modern, well managed business firms all over the United States are discovering the value of seriously considering consumer needs and orienting their marketing decisions to those needs.

Had the State College bookstores developed such "consumer orientation," Bennett said, "the committee's report would have been entirely different—if such a report had been needed at all."

The letter sent by the downtown book dealer to the Senators proves that at least some of the merchants will take steps to convince the University that it should not open a camus store. Turning to statewide political figures cannot be discounted. Such action has been rumored.

For the benefit of the academic community, we hope that the Administration and the trustees realize the need for a campus bookstore—a need which has been restated in a totally impartial Senate report.

Walker Shows Courage

Walker showed a rare bit of administrative courage when he made his annual end-of-the-year remarks to the Centre Daily Times.
Walker stressed the need for increased black enrollment and other programs to aid the disadvantaged as the highest priorities for 1969.

'We're entering our second year of expanding help offered to the under-privileged from our cities," Walker said. We have an Upward Bound program, we're sending admissions personnel into the predominantly black high schools in an effort to help their students enter the University and we're continually searching for qualified black faculty mem-

While we were pleasantly surprised to hear Walker outline this and other proposals to set up special programs for the disadvantaged in each of the University's colleges, something else the

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT Eric A. President said was even more surprising. Walker also stressed the need for an additional $10 million in state appropriations. This is no surprise in itself—the University annually needs an appropriations boost. But to link the plans to increase black enrollment with a plea to the General Assembly for more money might mark a milestone in administrative courage for the President.

It is unfortunate, but true, that many state legislators will be somewhat less than delighted to learn of Walker's plan to actively recruit black students. We congratulate the President for his outspoken statements.

We wish Walker luck when he travels to Harrisburg to plead for $70 million in appropriations. And we will closely watch the results of his plans for increasing black enrollment. The Administration often works in slow and secretive ways. We will make it our job to speed and publicize the process.

Please Don't Go Joe!

A BANNER at the New Year's Day pep rally in Miami Beach expressed it as well as anyone could.

"Don't Go To The Pros, Joe," was the simple message.

That thought rang through the minds of all Penn State football fans yesterday as Lion coach Joe Paterno was interviewed by the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League. We share the widespread admiration for State's popular young coach. And we hope that the University assures Paterno a long reign at Penn State by making his stay a financially successful one.

To us, Joe Paterno's value cannot be measured by an 11-0 season. The undefeated regular season and fabulous Orange Bowl victory are important, of course, but Joe Paterno is much more.

He treats his players as men, not just as athletes, and this is reflected in their play. But more importantly, it will be reflected in their post-graduate lives, when, for all but a few, football will only be a memory. This is the Paterno approach, the great experiment that has been so successful. Paterno has proved that the "football can be fun attitude" also wins games. He tells his football players to enjoy their entire college experience, to study music or philosophy and become well-rounded members of society. In the process he created the second-ranked college football team in the country.

Of course we think the Lions are the best team. And to us there can be no doubt that Joe Paterno is also Numero

Letters to the Editor

Don't Call His Mom; He's Too Old

TO THE EDITOR: I am writing to you to shed light on a present archaic policy prevelent in this University.

I was recently before the Nittany Pollock Tribunal for an incident that ocurred in my dormitory. As a result of this incident I was placed on disciplinary probation for a period of one term. I thought this action was definitive, but to my dismay I received a letter from "Mom" informing me that the Office of Student Affairs sent her a letter concerning this incident.

I will be 24 years old in February. I doubt very seriously that the University used proper discretion by writing to my parents.

Unfortunately, this type of policy is quite common at Penn State. Although I don't profess any affiliation with the SDS or the FSM, I believe they are justified in their demands for a renovation of this University. Most certainly, present unjust policies as the afore mentioned should be rectified.

I believe that if a man has completed five years in the military and is well over the age of 21, he should be considered a separate entity and not an automaton of his parents.

Should archaic policies as this remain, or should they of his parents.

Should archaic policies as this remain, or should they be changed accordingly? I prefer the latter. On these grounds I suggest it is time for a change in such policies.

William Murphy
8th-Foreign Service

What's In a Name? Ted Kennedy Knows

By MICHAEL SERRILL

Collegian Editorial Editor

"If his name was Edward Moore-with his qualifications, with your qualifications, Teddy-if it was Edward Moore your candidacy would be a joke. Nobody's laughing because his name is not Edward Mooreit is Edward Moore Kennedy."

This prophetic statement was made by Edward J. McCormack during a debate in the 1962 campaign for the Massachusetts

Edward J. McCoo the 1962 campai Senate seat of the late Presi-dent. His diffi-dent opponent made no attempt to refute the charges. It would have been futile have been futile anyway, for they were all true.

were all true.

E d w a r d

Moore Kennedy
w as completely unqualified for the post of United States Senator. He had no experience, at anything, only opinions. Yet he won the election won the election.

SERRILL purely on the strength of his name. Pay for Seat

1,300

Since 1962, he has tried to pay for his stolen Senate seat by working tirelessly, and quietly, in the name of various liberal causes. In the process, he has gained more respect among members of the Senate than either of his brothers ever enjoyed. He has been particularly active in the civil rights movement and his well-backgrounded reports provided the impetus for much voting-rights legislation. He also has been a strong advocate of amending the immigration and advocate of amending the immigration and draft laws. Like his brothers, he has become a defender of the dispossessed, the ghetto poor, the migrant workers, the youth, the aged.

But this is not enough. There are many other senators with legislative records which match or surpass that of the junior senator from Massachusetts and none of them is being spoken of in Presidential terms.

It was Edward Kennedy's name—and nothing else—that recently resulted in his election as majority whip. The tremendous power which that name has accrued since 1963 can only be fully understood by those familiar with the rigid, informal rules of Congressional politics.

Congressional politics.

The position of majority whip has always — almost without exception — been awarded to a Senator with many years seniority and much political influence within the Senate. A Senator's qualification for the position is not determined by how many bills he has passed, but how many favors are owed him. No Senator, no matter what his name, has ever dared to defy this rule and been successful, except Edward Moore Ekennedy. Kennedy.

Not To Propell

It is interesting to note here, however, that the post of majority whip is not one designed to propell a politician to national prominence. The chief function of the whip, as the word implies, is to whip the party members into line, to keep them from defecting from the party when important legislation is brought to the Senate floor.

Most of the whip's work is done in smoke-filled backrooms, away from inquiring reporters and camera lights. The fact that Kennedy's every movement is closely watched by a herd of reporters will only make his job more difficult and give him a reputation as a political manipulator rather than a statesman.

All Will Pale

But in 1972, even more than in 1962, all such charges as well as his legislative accomplishments will pale behind the glamor and nostagia which is associated with the name of Kennedy. Teddy will be catapulted into the limelight and probably the Democratic Presidential nomination by a press infatuated with the mere fact that he is a Kennedy.

"What is in a name?" Juliet asked Romeo in the much maligned Shakespearean masterpiece. No one knows better than Edward Moore Kennedy.

What Cheerleaders?

THE MIAMI Herald may know something that University students do

The morning after the Orange Bowl, the Herald reported that "Penn State did not have any cheerleaders, KU had ten and eight pom-pom girls.' Now, that statement may not have been entirely correct, since Penn State had 19 cheerleaders plus the Nittany Lion at the Orange Bowl. But it may be a lot closer to the truth than most Lion fans realize. The Kansas cheerleaders completely outclassed the Penn State group. There is nothing disgraceful in this itself, just as there is nothing disgraceful about the Kansas football team losing to Penn State. But it does remain that the PSU cheerleaders could have done so much better. A co-ordinated effort with the Blue Band when the Lions took the field would have been one improvment. But more than just the seemingly lackadaisical attitude of Penn State's cheerleaders disturbs us. The corps was up in arms when the athletic department said it would take only eight cheerleaders southward for the game. The athletic department finally relented, kicked in an extra $1,500 or so, and the whole group traveled to Florida. But we wonder if the deserved the trip. Where were they last Saturday night when the Lion basketball team opened its home season with an overtime victory? Not one blue sweater was in sight.

Perhaps the cheerleaders thought their duties were over after a trip to the Sunshine State. Perhaps next year, the athletic department should think twice about sending the corps on a holiday

Film Critique

'Bullitt' Taken Too Seriously

By PAUL SEYDOR Collegian Film Critic

Generically "Bullitt," now at Cinema I, is in the tradition of the American crime-gangster films of the thirties; and maybe because it has of movie, we're up for it and willing to ignore its failure to be the genuine article. "Coogan's Bluff," didn't come close because it's stupid; besides, with Clint Eastwood as the hero, all that engages your attention about him is if he's ever going to kick the manure out of his shoes.

"Bullitt." however, has Steve McQueen, plus the flair, rhythm, invention, and excitement of our best cops-and-robbers stories, with a sensational 15-minute car chase filmed in San Francisco that hits you literally at the gut level. Everytime a car hits a bump you feel like somebody dropped a brick into your stomach. Moreover, the dialogue is mostly good; the acting satisfactory; the editing precise; and, except for some awkward camera placement and a confusing opening sequence, the direction by a young Englishman, Peter Yates, is first rate. What's missing are the essential ingredients-wit and unpretentiousness.

Brutal Realism

You want to have fun with "Bullitt," and though you sometimes do, mostly the moviemakers won't let you. They keep returning to and dwelling on scenes of such brilliant, brutal realism that I began to suspect they actually believe they're saying something big and important. And after the gory close-ups of gun-shot wounds, the drawn-out hospital sequence, the love scene, the couple's roadside chat, the exchange between the hero and the lawyer at the airport, and the ritual handwashing and Oh-My-What-Have-I-Come-To stare in the closing shot-my worst fears came true: these guys are taking "Bullitt' literally!

Unfortunately, when a movie like this calls attention to its own seriousness and highlights the peripheral realism, it usually winds up exposing its absurdities. You can have realistic moments, but they have to be stylized so they jell with the rhythm and dynamics of the basic material and its overall tone, not shot in .documentary fashion.

Crack Detective?

If you respond according to the moviemakers' intentions, here's what you come up with: Lieutenant Frank Bullitt is touted as a crack homicide detective, though by my count he screws up three times: he lets his man get murdered; the murderer gets away at hospital; would have radioed for help in the car chase. Onward: professional murderers, given the baby-simple circumstances, wouldn't have "You Want To Have litt would have been Fun With 'Bullitt,' professionally crucified chase. No homicide deimportance.

tective would slay a Sometimes Do, Moststar witness of this ly The Movie-Makers Not finished yet: Won't Let You." after "The Graduate" I am no longer shocked by the peculiar moral stance of college audiences at movies, but I'm still fascinated. Everybody dislikes Robert Vaughn's Chalmers, the aggressive, ambitious law-

As these scenes occur, you just know they're building up to a big one in which Bullitt gets his say. It finally happens, as Chalmers chides, yer, especially when he keeps reminding Bullitt of his blunders (though Chalmers is right every time).

that the materials buckle from the strain. You can actually see, feel, and hear the thing fall to pieces in the scene where Jacqueline Bisset tells McQueen his job has made him too calloused. "Your world is so far from the one I know," she says. Honestly, if this kind of bilge is your idea of seriousness, then I suggest you either abandon it or camp it up for laughs.

rity is something you sell the public." What is Bullitt's reply, what rectitude does he offer for his curious methodry? "Bullshit!" In a way, that's appropriate, because the audience applauds, blissfully unaware that Chalmers could effectively apprehend "the organization" if only Bullitt

Such Solemnity

wit, but that it's carried off with such solmenity

Enough. It's not just that the movie lacks would stop goofing off.

"Bullitt' does have laughs, but that's not necessarily synonymous with humor or the kind of wit essential to this genre. What's needed is romantic irony, that is, a tip-off or two from the after that high-speed And Though You moviemakers that they know which ballgame they're playing.

Not Put-on Wit

I'm not speaking of sophomoric put-on wit (like the nitwit of "Coogan's Bluff") rather, of the kind a friend of mine suggested to me: someone, somewhere, sometime ought to say to Bullitt, "Bullitt. Bullitt! What the hell kind of name is THAT?" It's the kind of irony coupled with solid craftsmanship that made "The Thomas Crown Affair" such fun.

Generally, I like high-level melodrama that keeps you off-balance, never letting you be certain of the correctness of your responses until after you've left the movie and thought about it awhile. And when it's done with the expertise of a Frankenheimer in "The Manchurian Candidate." a Truffaut in "Shoot the Piano Player," or a Penn in "Bonnie and Cylde." you experience a sense of involvement quite unlike other arts can provide because they don't have movies' directness and immediacy.

Isn't High Level

But "Bullitt' isn't fundamentally very highlevel; and its constant jerks from kitsch to realism and back again are so disconcerting, because it's really all kitsch, that only a jerk could appreciate them.

In total, the effect of "Bullitt' is rather like that of making love to someone who doesn't know how to very well. You soon realize that things aren't going to improve and then resign yourself to enjoying the occasional points of expertise along the way-with, as Michael Caine said the other night, the emphasis on the "tise". "Bullitt" has many such moments, and they're so good you leave the theatre wishing the moviemakers knew what they were doing.

Israel's Immaturity

world stood up and applauded as Israeli troops put the final touches on their whirlwind victory over the fanatical, militarily inept Arab world.

The Israelis were the darlings of both liberals and conservatives. Their country was an oasis of freedom, reason, justice and power-in an abyss of poverty, ignorance and political, intellectual oppression. The Israelis understood racism and persecution, it was thought, after 3,000 years of being subjected to it. They knew how to deal with it and knew better than to practice it.

Until last week, the Israeli government dealt with the difficult post-war situation as best it could. The Arabs would get their land back if they merely sat down at a conference table with the Israelis, recognized its existence and signed a peace treaty. Not excessive demands from a military victor.

The Arabs, of coure, scorned all proposals which did not include pushing the Jewish nation into the Mediterranean Sea and began preparing for a fourth war.

The Israelis are thus left with millions of acres of worthless desert, the military occupation of which has both drained them economically and inspired large-scale terrorist movements in all of the occupied countries.

When the terrorism first became widespread, the Israelis responded in the only way they knew how—reprisal raids against the guerrillas.

The reprisal raids may have been justified while they were directed only at specific "liberation" organizations for the Liberation of Palestine. In recent months, however, Israeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan has expanded his retaliatory raids to include attacks on troops of the government in which the terrorists are based. Dayan and his government argue that the terrorist groups are either supported or ignored by the Arab governments.

While it is true that the Arab governments tolerate the guerrillas, it is also true that they have no choice. In the case of Jordon, King Hussein must tolerate the activities of Al-Fatah or risk being deposed by the military. If the Israelis force him to crack down on the terrorists, they are risking the loss of the only moderate Arab leader who survived the war. By attacking his troops they are only decreasing the possibility of an eventual peace.

The most flagrant-and stupid-example of misdirected over-reaction, how-ever, came last week when Israeli commandos destroyed 13 of Lebanon's commercial airplanes. If the Israelis really want peace, they will not get it by alienating the only Arab government willing to be reasonable, the only Arab country which did not participate in the war.

The unexpected Israeli strike smacks of the military adventurism and political immaturity which the world had come to expect from their antago-

In the future, the Israelis would do well to use less violent means of persuading the Arabs to join them at the conference table.

The Baily Collegian

63 Years of Editorial Freedom Published Tuesday through Saturday during the Fall, Win. 1r and Spring Terms, and Thursday during the Summer Term: by students of The Pennsylvania State University, Second class postage paid at State College, Pa. 16831. Circulation: 12,500.

Mail Subscription Price: $12.00 a year
Mailin Address — Box 467, State College, Pa. 16807
Editorial and Business Office — Basement of Sackett (North End)
Phone — 865-2531
Business office hours: Monday Ihrough Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Member of The Associated Press

PAUL J. LEVINE Editor WILLIAM FOWLER - C. Business Manager Board of Editors: Manasing Editor, William Epstain; Editorial Editor, Michael Sertill; City Editors, Genry Lynn Hamilton and Charles Redmon; Copy Editors, Kathy Litwak, Pat Gurosky and John Bronson; News Editors, David Nestor and Marc Klein; Soorts Editor, Ron Kolb; Assistant Sports Editor. Don McKee; Photography Editor, Pierre Bellicini; Senior Reporters, Marge Cohen, Gienn Kranzley, Allan Yoder and Jim Dorris; Weather Reporter, Elliet Abrams.

Board of Managers: Local Advertising Manager, Edward Fromkin; Assistant Advertising Managers, Leslie Schmidt and Kathy McCermick: National Advertising Manager, Jim Soutar; Credit Manager, George Geib; Assistant Credit Managers, Carol Book and Steve Leicht; Classified Advertising Manager, Mary Kramer; Public Relations and Promotions Marager, Ron Resnikoff; Circulation Manager, Allon Nixon; Office Manager, Mary Gebier. Committee on Accuracy and Fair Play: John R. Zimmerman, Frederick C. Jones, Thomas M. Golden. TUESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1969 PAGE TWO

Laird Names Civilians Chafee, Seamans, Resor To Flead Defense Posts

WASHINGTON — A defeated governor, a space expert and an incumbent Army secretary law a consen by the Nixon ad inistration to be the civilian bosses of the three armed

Secretary of Defense designate Melvin R. I al.u. nd. a rackage presentation of the three Pentagon appointees — all Republicans — a re-s conference yesterday. They

Secretary of the Navy

-Rhode Island Goy, John H. Chafee, 46, 100

Cha blockel a red, young-looking Chafee has a red, young-looking Chafee has a red, young-looking Chafee has r election bid last November and leaves office

Dr. Robert C. Seamans Jr., 59, who iii in the Managements it titute of Technology to become civilian and of Annagement

Former NASA Administrator

Former NASA Administrator

Once a deputy administrator of the Indianal Acronautics and Space in specific technology.

Some Resort of Resort of a surprise recupointment to stay on in the Army job here and since a will specific the time the Johnson administration began major troop complete to the land.

"They are my choices and President-elect Nixon's choices." Laird told newsmen.

Resort was retained, Laird said, to provide an element of continuity in the new civilian secretary team. Seamans brings in a wide knowledge of science, and Chafee, Laird intimated, possesses a useful political background.

Resor: Interest Conflict

Resor: Interest Conflict

All must be confirmed by the Senate but none appears to have such a big problem of disposing of defense stocks as Laird's newly appointed deputy secretary of defense, multimillionaire David Packard of California. Packard has what he calls an "almost impossible" conflict-of-interest problem which must be resolved to the satisfaction of the Senate.

Packard is placing $300 million in securities from the electronics firm he heads — HewlettPackard Corp. — into a trust and making other financial arrangements.

Laird took pains again Monday to defend system.

his choice of Packard for the No. 2 job and predicted the conflict-of-interest question "will be resolved without problem."

"The public interest of this country will be fully and adequately protected," the new defense chief said.

Resor has no problem with stocks since he has he'd apointive positions in the Army for several years. Seamans didn't mention any stocks, and Chafee indicated he had few "My situation is not quite similar to Mr. Pathard". Chalce quipped, but added that he will dispose of whatever holdings he must.

The three secretaries jobs pay $30,000 each.

he will dispose of whatever holdings he must. The three secretaries' jobs pay $30,000 each.

Chafee succeeds Paul R. Ignatius in the Navy job. Seamans replaces Harold Brown in the Air Force tol.

Resor Favors Draft

Resor's past position in support of the draft seems to put him at odds with the nervice fent elect. Nixon said during the election capaign his post-Vietnam goal is to replace Selective Service with an all-volunteer Army.

In response to questions, Resor said he agrees with a 1964 Pentagon study which called that the draft is necessary to meet military requirements, particularly in such cases as the Vietnam buildup.

But Resor added the Pentagon is updating that report and hinted that he might change his mind—"I'm looking forward to receiving any new information"

Seamans, a graving, grandfatherly type, his mind—"I'm looking forward to receiving any new-information"

Seamans, a graying, grandfatherly type, was deputy administrator o' NASA from December 1965 to January 1968. Laird said he has been active n the missiles and aeronautics field since 1941.

Seamans said he has worked closely with the Air Force since the early 1940s and, has served on its Scientific Advisory Board. He said he thinks the Air Force should have a major space program and implied he would like to see more done on the manned orbiting laboratory project which has taken a back seat to Vietnam spending in the past few years.

"There clearly are requirements for a strong space program" in the defense establishment, Seamans said. But he dodged a question on whether he thinks the United States should develop a space bomb like the Soviet Union's fractional orbital bombardment system.

INAUGURATION DAY NEARS and Presidentelect Nixon's working force continues to grow. Three new appointments were made yesterday in

Shafer administration proposal

Shafer administration proposal for a state income tax would have a rocky road through the legislature unless the governor convinced lawmakers it was needed, a survey revealed yesterday.

"We are opposed to the income tax at the present time," said Rep. Herbert Fineman, D-Philadelphia, who will become House Seaker today. "First of all we will scan the budget to make sure that all tiscal fat has been drained from all spending programs."

Fineman and other programs."

Fine man and other lawmakers commented on a proposal by the governor's Tax Study Commission Saturday for a state income tax as a new source of revenue. The commission are programs of the program of the programs of the programs of the programs of the program of the programs of the program of the programs of the program of commission also recommended keeping the current ratio of consumer and business taxes, which now stands at about 70 per cent consumer and 30 per cent business Need Democratic Support Shafer will not present his Collegian Staff Writer The enthusiasm, the support, the energy exhibited by the students and their band was without end — at least for the cheering section filled with Kansas Jayhawk supporters.

But the Penn State students

That is what Clark Arrington, president of the University Jazz Club, said while he watched the Orange Bowl game and when he talked about the Penn State cheering section that went south with their team.

"We were cheering for the Blue Band to play." Arrington said, "before we cheered for the players. The band was too busy watching the game to remember their responsibilities to the students and their school."

Arrington's main complaint was the band's "demoralizing" attitude at the Orange Bowl. As official—and sponsored—representatives of the University, he said they failed to fulfill their obligation.

Arrington continued "The teams were evenly matched and the students were equally excited. But, in comparison, the Kansas band was much better than the Blue Band. They did not stop performing after half-time—they played with every cheer."

Arrington also said the band played only one verse of the alma mater.

He added that he realized "school spirit" has been lacking among students, but, with a winning football season culminating in the Orange Bowl, the spirit was obvious in Miami.

in Miaimi. Arrington said more than 1 000 students attended the game, not to mention the alumni who also ventured south. "They showed their enthusiasm," he said "The Blue Band just did not support us"

Arrington was not alone in Arrington was not alone in his objections to the Blue Band's appearance in Miami, evidenced by the cheers for the band to play during the game. He said there were a number of other students who shared his opinion.

James W. Dunlop, director of the Blue Band, chose not to comment on the charges raised against his band.

budget message to the legislature until later this month, so it would not definitely be known until then whether he will take the commission's suggestion.

If he does, however, he would need the support of Democrats, who control the House.

Fineman, who has favored some business taxes before additional levies on the consumers a better break in taxes."

Your

Penn State

Class Ring

Tax Faces Rocky Road;

Assemblymen Opposed

has to be altered to give consumers a better break in taxes."

Rep K. Leroy Irvis, D. Allegheny and the new majority leader, said, "We the Democrats intend to tighten up the taxes that already exist before we pass any new taxes. "Not Unexpected."

"From what I have seen of it, the recommendation was not unexpected But this does not mean that we as a party are going to go blindly down the road of more taxes.

"The Republican caucus and the feeling throughout the state is that the people want and are entitled to a breather in radically new and expanded programs or any radically expanded changes in the tax structure." Lee said.

I on, who are taxes.

Chairman this session, actics that he was in tayor of the present bu siness-consumer ratio.

Suggest Tax Cut.

Suggest Tax Cut

"For the first time in 50 years the state has placed itself in competitive position with other industrial states." Lee said "It's a poor time to suddenly reverse the position" position '

position Democratic leader Senate Democratic leader Ernest P Kline of Beaver suggested that if an income tax is necessary, the state sales tax should be cut back

Collegian Classifieds Bring Results

Class Ring from MOYER

iewelers

The most respected symbol of your educational achievement.

216 EAST COLLEGE AVENUE Mail Inquiries Invited

Arrington Attacks Blue Band— They Were 'Just Unprepared'

By MARGE COHEN

were cheering alone. Their band was "just unprepared."

To Offer 2-Year Journalism Degree

Delco Adds Program

The University has decided to fill a "great unsatisfied \mathbf{n} eed" for beginning journalists by establishing an associate degree in journalism.

The two-year program will begin next fall at the Delaware County Campus. It has been designed to train reporters and editors for work on small town newspapers. Unlike similar two-year courses offered today, the Penn State program will be geared exhusively to newspaper journalism — particularly to small and medium size newspapers with less than 100,000 circulation.

newspapers with less than 100,000 circulation.

H. Eugene Goodwin, head of the School of Journalism, said the school has been aware of the need for beginning news personnel to work on smaller papers in the state.

"Today, the wire services, larger metropolitan dailies, radio and television and even the government, industry and public relations are going straight to the journalism schools for their staff members," he said. "In turn, the news departments of the smaller communities' newspapers must hire untrained people to fill their vacancies."

Goodwin said the School of Journalism's placement service has been unable to fill about 100 jobs per year on the smaller dailies and weeklies since most graduates accept positions with larger papers, the wire services or the electronic media.

The new program is officially designated as an option within the already-existing two-year program in letters, arts and sciences. Courses offered at the campus will include history of mass communications, beginning news writing, reporting and editing, public affairs reporting and newspaper management.

A minimum of 64 credits will be required for graduation. Efforts will be made to provide each student with summer work experience in journalism.

Students will receive a combination of practical education and general education in the liberal arts and sciences, according to John D. Vairo, director of the Delaware Campus and a former newspaper reporter and professor of journalism. The beginning courses in the regular four-year baccalaureate degree program in journalism will also be offered at the campus, he said.

"Since many newspapers require staff members who have some college training but not necessarily a bachelor's degree in newsroom work, we feel the associate degree program will provide the answer to one of journalism's most critical needs." Vairo said.

The program, organized by the School of Journalism, has received the support of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association and the Pennsylvania Society of Newspaper Editors.

Tiger or lamb: who makes the best CPA?

Men who move in flocks don't make the best CPAs.

The CPA often hunts for answers in wild new country. He's constantly trying to solve problems that have no pat solutions. He needs conceptual imagination and conviction - and guts. He may have to defend his answers (like a tiger) when he thinks

The demand for CPAs is growing fast. Whether they are in independent practice or part of the top management team of a company, they are taking on increasing responsibility in financial and business affairs.

You can select the college courses that can help you earn a CPA certificate soon after graduation. Or you can take them in graduate school. Ask your faculty advisor about them.

If you'll drop a card or note to us, we'll be glad to send you a booklet with the whole CPA story.

Write: Dept. AD-1, PICPA, 1100 Lewis Tower Bldg., Phila., Pa. 19102. Read it before you decide whether your answer to our question is 'G-r-r-r" or "B-a-a-a."

Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants

In honor of an incredible Orange Bowl victory, Herlocher's announces special prices on Char-broiled Kansas City cut steaks—both 6 oz. and 10 oz. sizes.

 Orange Blossoms—a pleasant mixture of orange juice and gin.

Join us!

Herlocher's Restaurant 418 E. College Ave. Free Parking in Rear

Collegian Ads Bring Results

from the associated press

News From the World, Nation & State

Security Tightened For Vietnamese Cabinet

SAIGON — The South Vietnamese government tight-ened security for cabinet officers yesterday following the assassination of its American-trained education minister, Le Minh Tri, by a terrorist bomb.

Combat police in regular army uniforms were assigned guard each cabinet member and give him an armed ep escort wherever he went.

While there were hints in Saigon newspapers that the fatal blast which wrecked Tri's car could have been something other than a Viet Cong attack, the government flatly called it "an act of terrorism by the Communists."

Tri died in the French-run Grall Hospital during an operation to remove shrapnel from his head.

operation to remove shrapnel from his head.

Political developments overshadowed the military, though thousands of American, Vietnamese and other allied troops and scores of aircraft hunted the enemy in widely separated sectors.

President Nguyen Van Thieu's government maintained silence on President-elect Nixon's appointment of Henry Cabot Lodge as his chief negotiator in the Paris peace talks. A spokesman turned aside all questions with: "No comment."

Comment."

Unofficially, however, South Vienamese were inclined to view the appointment of Lodge, twice ambassador to Vietnam, and the retention of Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker in Saigon, as indications that the Nixon administration would take a hard line in Paris.

Arabs, Israelis Discuss Border Violations

Arabs, Israelis Discuss Border Violations

MIDEAST—Lebanon and Israel moved yesterday to ease border tensions with a frontier meeting to discuss Israeli charges that Arab commandos have operated from Lebanon to mount attacks against Israeli villages.

Disclosure that direct talks took place between representatives of the two nations was almost certain to embarrass the government in Beirut where feeling still runs high over the Israeli reprisal raid against Beirut International Airport Dec. 28.

The government said the talks dealt with "investigation of complaints and disputes arising from violations of the terms of the 1948 armistice agreement."

Lebanon claims that the guerrillas do not use their country as a base for attacks. Lebanese Dofense Minister Hussein Ouweini says Israel turned down a proposal by Beirut to let U.N. observers into Israel to investigate charges that guerrillas came from Lebanon.

A Beirut newspaper claimed that Palestinian guerrillas have been rounded up and tortured in south Lebanon. It said demonstrators rallied in the southern city of Sidon and vowed to secure the commandos' release from custody of Lebanese authorities.

Lebanon's army was to submit a draft law to the government yesterday calling for 12 months compulsory training for youths. Cabinet and parliamentary approval is required. Ouweini said the cabinet already has agreed in principle.

Irish Government Moves To Combat Disorder

BELFAST, Northern Ireland.—The government ordered a massive police buildup yesterday to forestall further civil disorders like the bloody rioting in Londonderry over the weekend

The government refused however, to issue a blanket ban on all political parades and demonstrations. The Cabinet, meeting with Prime Minister Terence O'Neill, ordered Home Minister William Long to build up Northern Ireland's constabulary to any level he considered necessary to maintain law and order throughout Ulster's six counties.

six counties.

In Londonderry, Northern Ireland's second city, action committees representing the minority Roman Catholics were being formed and special vigilante forces were being set up to guard Roman Catholic districts of the city.

Nearly 200 were injured in two nights of turmoil in Londonderry and Roman Catholics charged that riot police went on a rampage in their districts early Sunday, smashing windows systematically and beating up women and children.

A CAMBOLINE AND COMMENTATION OF THE AREA STORED AND A STORE OF THE AREA STORED AND A STORE AND A STORED ASSETTING A STORED AND A STORED AND A STORED ASSETTING A STORED ASSETTING A STORED

The police denied the charges categorically but ordered an investigation.

The police defined the charges amount investigation.

Long indicated after the Cabinet meeting that his first step in reinforcing the police will be to mobilize more part-time policemen, members of the Ulster special constabulary. This would free riot-hardened regulars to handle civil disorders that have swept this province of 1.5 million since Oct. 5.

Assemblyman Says, 'Mental Hospitals Unfit' PITTSBURGH — An assemblyman charged yesterday that "glaring and dangerous deficiencies" exist in the state's mental hospitals.

mental hospitals.

Rep. Andrew J. McGraw, basing his accusations on an investigation he started in October, called for formation of a special committee to investigate the state's mental health program.

McGraw said at a news conference:

—There are indications that a fire which destroyed an annex at the Cresson State School for mentally retarded children was started by immates.

an annex at the Cresson State School for mentally retarded children was started by inmates.

—There was only one fire engine on the grounds at Dixmont State Hospital and the battery on it was so run down it couldn't turn over the engine.

—There are two new buildings at Somerset State Hospital that aren't in use because the roofs leak and windows and doors will not close.

—There is a $6.5 million building complex at Mayview State Hospital that hasn't been used since it was constructed in 1966.

"I made just four visits and found four instances of glaring deficiencies," said McGraw.
"Just imagine what we will find at other state institutions."

More U.S. Troops Fortify Czech Border

FRANKFURT, Germany — U.S. troops began preparations yesterday for big-scale maneuvers near the Czechoslovak border and promptly encountered Soviet charges that they were hatching a "provocative plan" to increase that they were natching a providence party for 12,000 Army troops tensions.

The 270-man advance party for 12,000 Army troops flew the Atlantic from Forbes Air Force Base in Kansas to Rhein-Main Air Base. They will set up tanks, guns and other heavy equipment at depots in Kaiser-slautern, Karlsruhe and Mannheim.

The maneuvers are part of the North Atlantic Treaty

The maneuvers are part of the North Atlantic Treaty

The maneuvers are part of the North Busine Treaty Organization's defense system.

Igor Orlov, commentator for the Soviet news agency Tass, said: "The NATO rulers are deliberately aggravating international tension with all the dangerous consequences flowing therefrom."

The main body of Americans will arrive in Nuernberg

The main body of Americans will arrive in Nuernberg by plane Jan. 20 to 21 to maneuver about 30 miles from the Czechoslovak border Jan. 29 through Feb. 4. They originally were scheduled for later this year but the date was moved up after the Soviet-led invasion of Czechoslovakia last August.

Nixon To Offer Guidance on Tax Surcharge
WASHINGTON — Congressional sources indicated yesterday that President Johnson will let President-elect Nixon guide his recommendation on whether to continue the tax surcharge, perhaps at a halved 5 per cent rate.

Johnson, in his final messages to Congress, will recommend extension beyond the June 30 expiration date, the Capitol Hill sources said, only if Nixon publicly urges it in advance or jointly with Johnson.

The rate almost certainly would be reduced from the current 10 per cent to 5 per cent if the tax is kept, the informants said. In his election campaign Nixon promised to end the surtax, but more recently his prospective secretary of commerce, Maurice Stans, has suggested keeping a 5 per cent levy in view of the inflationary threat.

- AND THE CONTRACTOR OF THE CO

CYPRUS PRESIDENT Makarious waved response to greetings at Athens airport before leaving for London for talks with government leaders. He arrived in London yesterday for the annual commonwealth conference.

Attorneys Meet Sirhan On Murder Trial Eve

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sirhan Bishara Sirhan was taken from his heavily guarded cell yesterday for a meeting with prosecution and defense attorneys on the eve of his trial for the murder of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

All indications were that the trial would open as scheduled at 9:30 a.m. today despite the discussions in the chambers of Superior Judge Herbert V. Walker, who will hear the lengthy proceedings.

Judge Walker said the closed lengthy proceedings.

Judge Walker said the closed meeting was called to "clear up certain pretrial matters." He said that if any motions were made they would be disclosed later.

Attorney Called to Court Sirhan, 24-year-old Jordanian immigrant, is accused of shooting Kennedy in a kitchen corridor of the Ambassador Hotel last June 5 as he left a celebration of the New York Democrat's victory in the Democrat's victory in the California presidential California presidential primary.

Sirhan's chief attorney,
Grani B. Cooper, meanwhile was called into federal court to explain how he obtained a secret transcript of grand jury testimony in another case.

Cooper recently defended one of five men convicted of conspiracy to cheat members of the Friars Club at cards.

Armor-plated Courtroom

Court observers did not expect the outcome of this hearing to affect the start of the trial.

Yesterday's pre-trial floor of the Hall of Justice, not far from Sirhan's heavily guarded cell. guarded cell.

The trial will be in an armorplated eighth floor courtroom, where windows have been covered with sheets. of steel.

of steel.

Jury selection is expected to take up the first two weeks of the trial, which may last two months or longer. More than 200 witnesses may be called, including the defendant's mother, Mary, and two brothers who live in the Los Angeles area. His father lives near Jerusalem.

Defended by Parsons, Berman In addition to Cooper, Sirhan will be defended by Russell B. Parsons, a veteran Los Angeles defense attorney, and Emile Zola Berman of New York City.

Viets Reject U.S. Ideas

PARIS (AP) — North Vietnam and the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front have rejected all American proposals for seating arrangements at the proposed four-way conference to end the Vietnam war, a Hanoi spokesman appropriate vesteration.

National Liberation Front have rejected any conference to end the Vietnam war, a Hanoi spokesman announced yesterday.

The spokesman Nguyen Thanh Le, told a news conference the suggestions advanced by the United States were absurd. The U.S. delegation immediately deplored this development and blamed North Vietnam for the deepening stalemate over how to get the talks started.

Until Le spoke up, American negotiators consistently maintained that none of their proposals had been rejected outright and all were still open for bargaining.

Thus President-elect Nixon's nominee as chief American delegate, Henry Cabot Lodge, seems virtually certain to take up his post with the 10-week-old deadlock unresolved.

Round Table Rejected

U.S. Ambassador Cyrus R. Vance offered Jan. 2 on behalf of the United States and South Vietnam to sit down at a round table — as Hanoi wants — provided it had some dividing line to show the talks were two-sided.

Le said Hanoi will not sit down at any table unless the NLF is accorded the full and equal status of an independent delegation. At the same time, Le said, North Vietnam and the NLF are ready to accept virtually any shape of table provided it does not present the conference as two-sided.

NLF Status Blocks Talks

The argument over whether the conference is two-sided

as two-sided.

NLF Status Blocks Talks

The argument over whether the conference is two-sided revolved entirel; around the status of the NLF, which the Saigon government says is a rebel movement directed and supplied by Hanoi.

Saigon, backed by the United States, insists that the conference must be two-sided to underscore its claim that the NFL representatives are really part of the Hanoi delegation. President Johnson had hoped the parley would begin Nov. 6.

President Johnson has a President Johnson has named Lodge, former U.S. ambassador in Saigon, to replace the Johnson appointed chief American negotiator, W. Averell Harriman, on about Jan. 20, when the administrations will change in Washington.

Hones Fade

Despite the rebuff, Harriman and his aides still nursed faint hopes of a breakthrough in the next two weeks. But there was a noticeable lack of conviction in that optimism.

Bradford Air Tragedy Second in 2 Weeks

BRADFORD, Pa. (M — An Allegheny Airlines propjet with 28 persons aboard — a companion flight to a plane that went down here two weeks ago — crashed Monday night in a light snow south of Bradford.

night in a light snow south of bradiord.

Early reports said 15 survived.

The National Transportation Safety Board reactivated the same 10-man investigating team that was looking into the first crash. A spokesman said the group was being sent because of the "amazing similarity" of the two accidents.

BRADFORD. Pa. — An Allegheny Airlines plane crashed just south of here while attempting a landing at Bradford regional airport last night. First reports said nine of the 25 aboard survived.

The plane came down on Pine Acres golf course, which is on a high plateau about nine miles south of the airport. The crash site is a few miles from where an Allegheny Airlines Convair 580 crashed on Christmas Eve. Twenty were killed in that crash and 27 survived.

Airline officials said the latest crash was Flight 737, originating in Washington, going on to Harrisburg and Bradford and scheduled to stop in Erie and Detroit. The Christmas Eve crash was Flight 736, the eastbound companion flight of Flight 737.

Authorities said the plane was making an instrument approach at the airport in partly cloudy weather, as a light snow was falling. Visibility was 1.5 miles, with light winds. There was six inches of snow on the ground.

They said ambulances, trucks and jeeps were en route to the crash site, near the small community of Marshburg. Authorities said they lost radio contact with the plane at 8:32 p.m.

METZGERS Inc.

358 E. College Avenue

Used Paperbacks	1/2 off
Used Texts	$2.00 each 25° each 25° each
One Lot Markers
Sun Glasses
Lindy Pens	25° each
C.C.M. Ice Skates Men's and Women's	$ 25.95
Posters	§1.00 each

Student Supplies Penn State Souvenirs Schaums Outlines — 20% off Monarch Notes

Hospital Reverses Sexes

Collegian Staff Writer
University of Washington — "Make me look the way I feel!" This is the most frequent request of applicants for a change-of-gender operation at the University Hospital, according to the Daily. Applicants are only being accepted from within a 300-mile radius of Seattle to facilitate post-operative observation.

post-operative observation.

*** **

Duquesne University — College students convicted of forceful disruption of university activities may risk forfeiture of federal financial aid, said the Duke. Offenders would be punished in accordance with the appropriations bill of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare and the Congressional higher education bill for fiscal 1969. These students will be granted due process of law but the final decision will rest with the university. with the univesrity.

Washington State — Although this is only the second day of classes, University students might take this tip for study breaks from the Daily Evergreen. Students at WSU fill their 10 p.m. study break with a rousing game of hockey in the halls—a la tennis ball and mop. The passtime has its drawbacks, however. "I became so tired after playing that I just go back in my room and flop on the bed," explained one student.

University of Massachusetts — An unknown student at the university risked death in a 40 m.p.h. wind and freezing temperatures to affix a white peace flag atop a 110-foot flag pole in front of the Whitmore Administration Building. A professional steeplejack, hired for the flag's removal, said that the culprit had to be either "drunk or crazy." It is reported that it will cost the university about $100 to take the flag down.

University of Maryland - Speaking of flags, amendback spectators, incensed by the appearance of a 60-foot confederate flag at the Clemson football game, stole it from the Clemson cheerleaders. A Diamondback editorial stated that "As distasteful as the presence of a confederate flag in the Diamondback office would be, we would be glad to faciliate its return to Clemson."

Eastern New Mexico University — Has anyone considered the plight of the resident assistant whose job it is to conduct bed checks? The Chase examined this problem recently, explaining that while some girls just turn over and go back to sleep, occasionally the RA is the object of a thrown shoe or, at the very least, some foul language. Junior Gayle Roach said that she usually just shruggs it off—after all bed checks are "just part of our job."

University of South Dakota — The student-faculty-owned bookstore had net sales for one year at $568,312.57. USG, where are you?

year at $568,312.57. USG, where are you?

Louisiana State — Members of the Association of Women Students voiced opposition to the present dress code and favored its abolition, said the Daily Reveille. One university coed said that other universities noted for their academic excellence, had no such dress code and that these places "are not degenerating."

University of Miami — Plans for a coed pajama party were squelched recently when the administration prohibited pajamas. The party took place, however, and the women were allowed in mens' rooms with the door closed all but the width of a matchbook!

width of a matchbook!

* * * *

University of Maryland — The director of health services at the university expects that a "conservative number" of 50 students will drop out of the university because of mental problems resulting from the pressure of final to mental institutions.

San Diego Mesa College — Seven-year-old Elias Christopoulos has become the "son" of the student body of a California junior college, said the Olympian. The adoption was engineered by Foster Parents, Inc. of New York. Elias receives $8 a month to supplement his mother's measure income

University of South Dakota — The invasion of mice into the residence halls is causing much consternation at the university, reported the Volante. This would not be so bad, complained one student, but earlier in the month another residence hall was evacuated after being invaded by bed bugs!

University of Miami (Fla.) — All-American Ted Hendricks blew his cool last month when he made an appearance on the Johnny Carson show. Carson asked Hendricks to try his hand at selling an "imaginative product" so he would get some training in case he turned pro. While in the process of reading his spiel off the cue cards, a volunteur blood appeared on career and are voluptous blond appeared on camera and pro-ceeded to remove his shirt. Hendricks was so flustrated that "the black and white screen began to turn pink."

Kent State — Mrs. Adelle Metcalf of the university information center recalled in the Kent Stater some of the wierd questions the center received last year. She said that one student asked about the school policy concerning peeping toms. Other students asked about the shrinkability of cotton, and whether locusts came out every seven or 17 years. When asked about peeping toms, the operator couldn't resist asking whether he wanted to do the peeping or whether he was being recered uron.

Campus Comment —

A Dream, A Shrewd Deal And... 'Good Morning Centr al Penna.'

By GERRY LYNN HAMILTON Collegian City Editor

IT BEGAN with a dream. A few men wanted to open a new daily newspaper. A shrewd deal involving investments, working capital and calculated losses, along with advanced newspaper technology, made the paper possible.

The "Good Morning" newspaper said "Good Morning, Central Pennsylvania" on Dec. 11, almost six months behind schedule. The first issue of 40 pages missed its deadline by several hours as a half million dollar worth of modern photocomposition equipment failed to operate proper-

Despite the delay, the new paper was widely talked about and enthusiastic ally received. Congratulations poured in from all over. And the history of the press in America took another step. A bit of journalism tradition in all of its stereotyped glory was reenacted.

Newest in U.S.

The Pennsylvania Mirror is the newest daily newspaper in the country, and only the third or fourth started in the United States during the past 10 years. Most new dailies are the result of mergers. But the Pennsylvania Mirror is new—from the printing presses

The next morning the Mirror settled down to its routine 12 pages with a meager allotment of advertising, and very little news about the area it serves, Central Pennsylvania.

Students interested in joining the staff of The Daily Collegian should attend an open house at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Collegian office.

The glamour began to wear away as the paper missed deadline after deadline. Paperboys quit their routes because their papers didn't arrive before they had to go to school. Subscriptions eased off. Equipment continued

Men began to show the results of the frustrations. Some tempers rose, and occasionally a tear glistened as the reality of a thream began to fade.

Color and Lower Case

But the Pennsylvania Mirror isn't dead. Attractively spotted with a liberal use of color and lower case headlines, the staff is overcoming the initial sloppiness of the paper. It's beginning to look less like a bulletin board and more like a newspaper. And the paper's annual payroll is expected to exceed $300,000.

The paper is unique Computerized Modern. And it can be made very readable by the new techniques which it is using.

Six months to a year. That's how long it'll be before the paper is really on its feet. Really a newspaper. In two years the bookkeepers will have more to do than look at

Three Newspapers

The State College area will be supporting three daily newspapers with its advertising dollars. The Mirror, The Centre Daily Times and The Daily Collegian.

Will State College do it? If not, will the Mirror hurt the other two? Will the Mirror compete with the Collegian for an audience of 25,000 at the University.

Only time can tell. But one thing is certain: the next two years will be interesting, for the Pennsylvania Mirror is only beginning to realize its potential.

> 3000 Pierced Earrings GUY BRITTON Next to Murphy's

$1 Billion

Federal Loans Aid Students

One billion dollars has been loaned under the Guaranteed Loan Program for college and vocational students. Commissioner Harold Howe II of the U.S. Office of Education announced on Dec. 12.

The Guaranteed Loan Program, authorized by the Higher Education Act of 1965, makes longsterm low-interest makes long-term, low-interest guaranteed or insured loans available to students attending approved colleges, universities, vocational, technical, trade or business schools.

business schools.

Students obtain their loans from banks, savings and lean associations, insurance companies, credit unions, associations, in surance companies, credit unions, pension funds and similar lending institutions. The lender is protected against loss by a state agency or by the federal government. A loan can also be guaranteed by a private nonprofit agency, United Student Aid Funds, Inc. (USAF).

Generally, a student may borrow up to $1,500 each academic. year to a maximum of $7,500 for his college career. Repayment of principal does not begin until nine to 12 months after the student has left school. A student may generally repay his loan over a period of five to 10 years, although he will be required to pay at least $360 per year. Repayment of principal may be deferred while the borrower To alleviate last term's housing problem, the University has admitted only 150 new students. About half of these are new freshmen and the others are transfer students from other schools.

There were also about 250 students re-admitted and 250 transferring to University Park from branch campuses.

This total of 675 is approximately half the number admitted last Winter Term. More than 1,000 students graduated in December.

Total enrollemnt at University Park for the Winter Term is 24.850, about 1,000 less than Fall Term.

According to a study by the Department of Housing and Food Services approximately 51 per cent of these students live in residence halls. This percentage is down from last year but the total number is higher due to increased enrollment.

In addition to the students living in residence halls, approximately 31 per cent or 8,274 students live in private off campus housing. Fraternities increased from 2,094 to 2,145 while the number of students living at home reached 2,290. Each accounted for another 8 per cent of the total enrollment.

Peace Corps or VISTA, or deferred.

to full-time study.

In school and until the repayment of principal is deferred.

"The Guaranteed Loan

Squeeze in Housing

Spurs Admissions Cut

to full-time study.

The maximum interest rate is 7 per cent per year. If a student comes from a family with an adjusted income of less than $15,000 a year, the federal government pays all interest charges while he is deferred.

"The Guaranteed Loan Program is meeting the need American students for a means to finance their financial aid programs because they could not demonstrate sufficient need.

Sometimes these young people need just a little money to see them over the hump, and sometimes they need a lot, particularly if there are a number of children of college age in the family at the same time. This program helps meet both needs."

The Office of Education said that these loans to college and vocational students will be even more readily available in the future. Recent amendments broaden the future.

Bethlehem Steel Loop Course Interviews:

What is the Bethlehem Loop Course? It is our management development program for graduates with bachelors' or advanced degrees.

The course starts early in July with four weeks of orient tion at our home offices in Bethlehem, Pa. Loopers attend lectures on every phase of the corporation's activities, and make almost daily

Steel Plant Loopers, who comprise a majority of the average loop class of 150 to 200 graduates, proceed to various plants where they go through a brief orientation program before beginning their on-the-job training assignments. Within a short time after joining the course, most loopers are ready for assignments aimed toward higher levels of management.

How about other loopers? Our Sales Department loopers (30 or 50) remain at the home office for accounts. Fabricated Steel Construction loopers are trained in a drafting room, on a field erection project, in a fabricating shop, and in an engineering office. A looper's first work assignment is based on interests and aptitudes disclosed during this program.

Loopers in Accounting, Shipbuilding, Mining, Research, Traffic, Purchasing, Finance and Law, General Services, and Industrial and Public Relations go through training programs tailored to their types of work.

Where would YOU fit in? Check your degree or the one most similar to it.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERING-Engineering or mechanical maintenance departments of steel plants, fabricating works, mining operations, and shipyards. Fuel and combustion departments. Supervision of production operations. Marine engineering assignments in Shipbuilding Department. Also: Sales or Research.

METALLURGICAL ENGINEERING - Metallurgical departments of steel plants and manufacturing operations. Engineering and service divisions. Technical and supervisory positions in steelmaking departments and rolling mills. Also: Research or Sales.

CHEMICAL ENGINEERS-Technical and supervisory positions in coke works, including production of byproduct chemicals. Fuel and combustion departments, including responsibility for operation and maintenance of air and water pollution control equipment. Engineering and metallurgical departments. Steelmaking operations. Also: Research or Sales.

INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERING-Positions in steel plants, fabricating works, shipyards, and mines. Engineering and maintenance departments. Supervision of steelmaking, rolling, manufacturing, and fabricating operations. Also: Sales.

CIVIL ENGINEERING: Fabricated Steel Construction assignments in engineering, field erection, or works management. Steel plant, mine, or shippard assignments in engineering, construction, and maintenance. Supervision of production operations. Sales Department assignments as line salesman or sales engineer (technical service to architects and engineers)

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING-Steel plant, fabricating works, mining operations, and shipyard electrical engineering, construction, and maintenance departments. Technical and supervisory positions in large production operations involving sophisticated electrical and electronic equipment. Also: Research or Sales.

MINING ENGINEERING - Our Mining Department operates coal and iron ore mining operations and limestone quarries, many of which are among the most modern and efficient in the industry. This 10,000-man activity offers unlimited opportunities to mining engineers. Also: Research.

NAVAL ARCHITECTS AND MARINE ENGINEERS: Graduates are urged to inquire about opportunities in our Shipbuilding Department, including the Central Technical Division, our design and engineering organization.

OTHER TECHNICAL DEGREES-Every year we recruit loopers with technical degrees other than those listed above. Seniors enrolled in such curricula are encouraged to sign up for an interview.

ACCOUNTANTS-Graduates in accounting or business administration (24 hours of accounting are preferred) are recruited for training for supervisory assignments in our 3,000-man Accounting Department.

OTHER NON-TECHNICAL DEGREES - Graduates with degrees in liberal arts, business, and the humanities are invited to discuss opportunities in the Sales Department. Some non-technical graduates may be chosen to fill openings in steel plant operations and other departments.

NOW'S THE TIME TO SIGN UP FOR AN INTERVIEW. And when you register at the placement office, be sure to pick up a copy of our booklet, "Careers with Bethlehem Steel and the Loop Course." It contains important information about the corporation and your opportunities through the Loop Course.

BETHLEHEM STEEL

An Equal Opportunity Employer in the Plans for Progress Program

The Pennsylvania State University Departments of English, Theatre, and Student Affairs present ...

The Oxford & Cambridge Shakespeare Company in...

"A Midsummer Night's Dream"

Saturday, January 11 at 8 p.m. in Schwab Auditorium.

Followed by

"Strictley for Kicks" - a late night revue from the heritage of "Beyond the Fringe." Saturday, Jan. 11 at 11 p.m. in the Playhouse.

All tickets are free and will be distributed at the HUB desk beginning at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday.

See this Spirited young theatre group on its first American tour.

'Those Were The Days, My Friend'-1968

By CHARLES REDMOND Collegian City Editor

. With 1969 still only seven days old, now is the time to reiterate the major happenings of 1968 and their consequences.

Last Spring Term, with the Undergraduate Student Government elections only weeks away, Steve Gerson, USG Administrative Action Committee chairman, and his committee members began a massive campaign to bring a student-run, student-oriented bookstore to the campus.

One of the major events organized by Gerson's committee was a three-day boycott of the Student Bookstore on College Ave.

Along with Gerson, Harv Reeder, then president of the class of 1970; Bill Sinclair, then president of the Men's Residence Council and other notables in student government marched in front of the store, passing out leaflets describing the goals of the committee and telling why the bookstore was being picketed.

When USG elections rolled around Jon Fox then

When USG elections rolled around, Jon Fox, then vice president and candidate for president, Jost to Jim Womer, chairman of Fox's Academic Affairs Committee. In the tumble for power that followed the extremely close election, Fox's running mate. Ted Thompson, won over Steve Gerson for the post of vice president. Harv Reeder won over Don Paule for treasurer.

In the middle of Spring term, the Douglas Assoin the middle of Spring term, the Douglas Asso-ciation, a black student organization, demanded, among other things, that the University institute more courses dealing with black culture, admit more black students to the University and hire more black professors.

The blacks staged a sit-in at Old Main and refused to budge until they met with either President Eric A. Walker or Vice President for Student Affairs, Charles Lewis met with the students, numbering about forty, and agreed to check into their demands.

The black students were active on campus again when Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller scheduled a visit here as part of his campaign tour. The blacks, massed along with whites on the Hetzel Union Building lawn, displayed banners and talked with students concerning their alleged plight here.

Parking has always been a problem with University students. This Fall Term students came back to a campus overfilled with automobiles and complained so loudly that the Administrative Action Committee of USG undertook a study of the stuation. The committee discovered to no one's surprise that there was indeed a dearth of student parking spots on campus.

George Wallace's campaign had caused enough furor throughout the country, but no one could have guessed the consequences of a Wallace visit to Hershey. John

Ginghrich, alias John Rich, a WDFM broadcaster, estab-

Ginghrich, alias John Rich, a WDFM broadcaster, established his own party and ran for president on the slogan: "If Wallace can run, so can I."

Rich and his entourage made the trek to Hershey the night of the Wallace rally, ostensibly to campaign. Eye witnesses to the farce have conceded that the real idea of the trip was to heckle Wallace, using reverse psychology—much as one would on a child. Rich and his troupe cheered after every point Wallace made, though it is doubtful if the third-party candidate caught the sarcasm in their voices. the sarcasm in their voices.

Among the impressive visitors the campus had last fall were Dick Gregory, Jesse Arnelle and General of the Army William C. Westmoreland.
Gregory spoke in the HUB Assembly Hall, telling it like it is, with regard to the War in Vietnam, the crime problem and the elections.

Arnelle Returns

Arnelle last year turned down the first annual Alumni Association Award for being a credit to the University. In his rejection speech, Arnelle said "I love Penn State, but freedom is dearer to me."

In his visit last term, Arnelle said much the same thing, emphasizing that prejudice erodes much like a rock, "drop by drop."

Westmoreland's visit the weekend of the Penn State-Army football game was accompanied by more than the usual ballyhoos. Along with about 2,000 army cadets, who were obviously enchanted by the general's visit, there were about two dozen Students for a Democratic Society members who weren't nearly as pleased. The SDS members picketed Walker's residence, in which the general was being entertained, and laid down in front of a bus that was taking the General and Walker to Beaver Stadium.

Several of the protestors were consequently arrested for this action, but were later released.

Results of Events

Results of Events

Have there been any results from these "happenings"? If there have, very few of them have been tenable. There is, for instance, no student bookstore on able. There is, for instance, no student bookstore on campus.

The Douglas Society's demands, have been met, in part. The University has added to its course offerings several black culture classes.

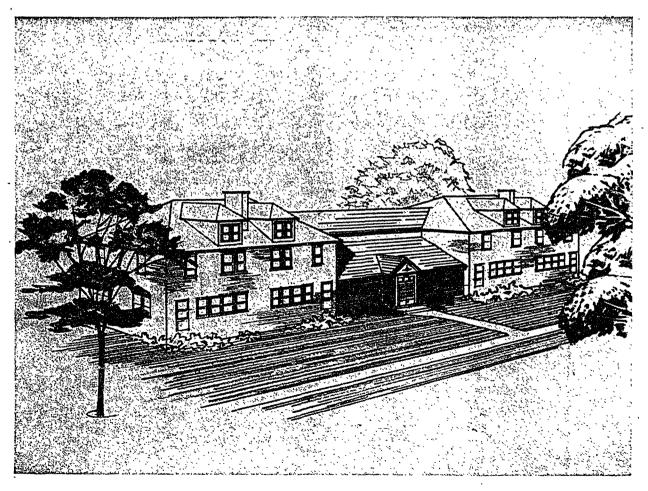

The parking problem still exists, perhaps as chronically as it ever did. But the East Halls parking lots do have mercury vapor lights now—after too many girls complained of being attacked, or "nearly attacked."

SDS will still picket the "military establishment" for its alleged mass murders. And, they will still protest the University's involvement with the military, as typified by the Ordnance Research Laboratory, run by the University for the Department of the Navy.

This is 1969, the year of continued strife, within and without the University community. Change, unfortunately, comes all too slow for young idealists.

The Brothers, Pledges and Alums

SIGMA ALPHA MU

CONSTRUCTION HAS BEGUN AT 237 E. FAIRMOUNT

are proud to announce the completion date of their new chapter house for Spring '69!

contracted by P. Henneger designed by Kennedy-Basom-Grieco

Year-End Review Of Campus Events

The following is a capsule of the leading news stories recorded at University Park during 1968.

Winter Term

Jan. 11. Gov. Shafer signs $48.468,766 appropriations bill for the University.
Feb. 7. Gov. Shafer recommends $59.222,241 for Penn State appropriations, about $2.5 million less than requested.

requested.

Feb. 8. University studying effects of proposed budget cut, including Gov. Shafer's suggestion for tuition increases.

March 4. Gov. Shafer announces plans for transportation, traffic safety research center here.

March 19. University's research budget questioned at House appropriations committee hearing.

March 23. Record crowds, entrants mark NCAA wrestling championships here.

Spring Term

April 18. Heald-Hobson report calls for conversion of certain Commonwealth Campuses.

April 19. President Eric A. Walker sees Heald-Hobson report supporting most University programs.

April 30. Datestone laid for Medical Sciences Building at Hershey Medical Center.

May 1. Datestone ceremonies held at Hershey Medical Center, animal farm.

May 6. Students stage tree-in to protest removal of S. Atherton St. trees for highway widening project.

May 13. Black students present demands for changes here.

changes here.

May 16. Weather forces Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller to cancel twice-scheduled visit here.

May 16. University makes plans to act on black students' request. May 18. Jesse Arnelle, former athlete and student leader, criticizes University policies in football banquet

May 24. President Walker answers students' questions on Penn State's role in the Institute for Defense Analyses.

June 15. Three faculty members honored as record number of 3,700 graduate.

Summer Term

July 9. State Senate approves University appropriation of $59,220,000. President Walker announces plans to admit 2,000 additional students.

Juli 20. Second annual Central Pennsylvania

Jull 20. Second annual Central Pennsylvania Festival of the Arts opens here.
July 26. Trustees authorize $25-per-term tuition hike for Pennsylvania students.
Aug. 5 Bellefonte Borough Council gives architecture department the go-ahead on comprehensive study of town's architectural possibilities at no cost.
Sept. 12. Housing shortage looms in State College as enrollment hits record high, code enforcement reduces number of available rooms.

Fall Term

Sept. 16. Homeowners asked to help alleviate student housing shortage.

Oct. 14. More than 2,000 turn out at 4:30 a.m. to welcome home football team after 21-6 victory over UCLA.

Oct. 23. Allegheny County legislator suggests rent control, after inspection of some units.

Nov. 6. Centre County Democratic chairman charges power politics, discrimination in Centre Daily Times advertising and violation of the Hatch Act by President Walker.

Nov. 18. Undefeated No. 3 ranking football team

Nov. 18. Undefeated No. 3 ranking football team accepts bid to play Kansas in Miami's Orange Bowl.

Includes Oswald Tape

YAF Sets Term

A tape of Lee Harvey Oswald and a presentation of 'The Other Side of the Grape Boycott' are scheduled for the Young Americans for Freedom

The tape will be played at the chapter meeting at 7:30 tomorrow in 217-218 Hetzel Union Building, Other business on the agenda is a plan to 'win' William F. Buckley for a day, and the selection of a YAF College Bown team.

The Night The Lights Went Out...

The dark mood many students are in at the end of the first day of classes was almost as bad as the blackout many experi-enced last night during a power failure near the College of Human Devel-

Maintenance crews rapidly repaired the broken cable responsible for the electrical failure in nearby buildings. But they found it necessary to switch off the power again for 10 minutes at 8 p.m. and again at 11.

mons, McElwain, Hartranft. Mifflin and Beaver.

> LOCAL AD DEADLINE 11:00 A.M. Tuesday which is the second of the sec

CHARTER FLIGHTS TO EUROPE

BOEING 707 and DC-8 FAN JETS

ROUND TRIP

ONLY $200

• NEW YORK Depart June 15 June 23

• LONDON

Open only to Students, Faculty, Staff and their immediate families living within same household.

For Reservations and Information Call Your Campus Representative: 237-1790

CHARTER FLIGHTS

Box 948 State College, Pa. 16801

continues his January SALE at 2 of his 3 stores, 124 S. Allen St. and the Young Sophisticates shop at 230 E. College Ave.

All Fall & Winter Skirts by Villager. Ladybug & John Meyer-1/2 price. Villager & Golo Shoes - 1/2 price.

	Reg.	SALE
Save on	79.95	58.00
MAUNITED COATCI	69.95	48.00
WINTER COATS!	59.95	44.00

Great Reductions on blouses! slacks! sweaters! dresses! hand-bags! hoisery!

25% off on lined & unlined Raincoats 1/3 off on all Suede & Leather Coats, Jackets, & Skirts

Other proposed YAF projects are a "Stop NSA (National Students Association) Committee." an Bowl Tournament.

Next Wednesday YAF will sponsor a talk by Alvin W. Simokat, of the Pennsylvanians for Right to Work, on the grape boycott. According to Cooper, Simokat will "expose the hypocrisy of those on the left who have made this a cause celebre. this term.

According to YAF chairman Doug Cooper, the tape is a radio show in which Oswald took part three months before he assassinated President John F. Kennedy. Oswald talks about the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, of which he was a member, and the blessings of Cuba under Castro. cause celebre.

"The issue is not concern over migrant workers." Cooper said "because 88 percent of the workers live in the county they work in and 73 per cent have been county residents for more than five years. Nor is the issue low wages, because Delano grape pickers averaged more than $2 an hour during the 1967 season, with experienced pickers above $2.50 an hour, according to the Jan. 1, 1968 report of the Crop Reporting Board of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

"The real issue is

Last year YAF won the grand championship in the Student Government College Buildings affected were White, Atherion, Sim-

DAILY COLLEGIAN

outination in management and collegion Notes some interest and a material and the collegion of the collegion

Mall Tree Removed

An American elm tree on the Mall, west of Old Main, has been removed to help prevent the spread of Dutch elm disease.

It is the second tree on the Mall to be removed this year. Another near the main entrance to the entrance was Another near the main entrance to the campus was cut in July.

The trees were the first since 1953 to be removed because of the Dutch elm disease which in some areas has caused heavy loss of American elm trees.

has caused heavy loss of American elm trees.

More than fifty elms, some of them a hundred years old, line the Mall and are among 400 elm trees on the campus. The University has wen nationwide attention for its program to combat the program to combat the disease.

SDS will meet at 9 tonight in 217-218 HUB.

of Agriculture.

"The real issue is compulsory unionism. Cesar Chavez and his United Farm Workers Organizing Committee, after spending three years of effort and $10 million, have been able to get only 2 per cent of the workers to join the union. The National Boycott is their weapon to force the growers to force their workers to join a union which they will not join voluntarily."

Association) Committee," an "underground university" course on capitalism, an objectivist study group and the sale of Beatle posters with the words to "Revolution" and posters of Buckley.

The State College office of the Internal Revenue Service

income tax returns.

The Hillel Foundation has received a $500 grant to support non-credit courses in Yiddish from the Farband Foundation of the Labor Zionist Order. Besides a beginner's Yiddish course, an advanced course will be held at Hillel this term.

David Gottlieb, professor of human development and director of the Division of Community Development, has been appointed to the Advisory Board of the Neighborhood

The second of the second second WDFM Schedule

SDS will meet at 9 tonight in 217-218 HUB.

The Penn Statesmen, a 17-piece stage band, will hold auditions from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. tomorrow in 110 Music Building. The group 1s sponsored by the department of music as a one-credit course, Music 167.

The first meeting of the term of the College of Education Student Council will be held at 6;30 tonight in 217-218 HUB.

Auditions for the selection of actors to form a repertoire company will be held from 7 to 10 p.m. today and tomorrow in 6 Arts Building.

The State College office of the Internal Revenue Service

WDFM Schedule

TODAY

A D m.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News
Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM News Spanish quitar music, works by Moderar, Torobox. Suz., et. al pm.—WDFM New at 453 E. College Ave. will Assistance Program, a new be open every Monday from venture of the Pennsylvania graduate student at the 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. to assist taxpayers in filing their 1968 Affairs.

University and presently a graduate student at the University of Illinois, has been named the first place winner to the first place winner.

Affairs.

Approved by Governor Shafer in July, the Neighborhood Assistance Act provides tax credits for investments made by business firms in projects which improve conditions in poverty areas of the State.

Tours of Pattee Library for raduate students will be conducted at the following hours: Jan. 14 at 9:45 a.m.: Jan. 15 at 1 p.m.; Jan. 16 at 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. and Jan. 17 at 10 a.m. Tour groups will meet in 201 Pattee.

Calvin J. Cotrell, professor of education and specialist with the Center for Research and Leadership Development in Vocational And Technical education at Ohio State University, will speak on "Micro-Teaching — Fad or Promising Practice." at 3.30 p.m. Friday in 207 Chambers.

The University won second and third place in two national crops contests — second place at the National Collegiate Corps Contest in Kansas City, Mo., and third at the International Collegiate Crops Contest in Chicago.

The teams were scored on commercial grading, seed analysis, and identification of plant materials.

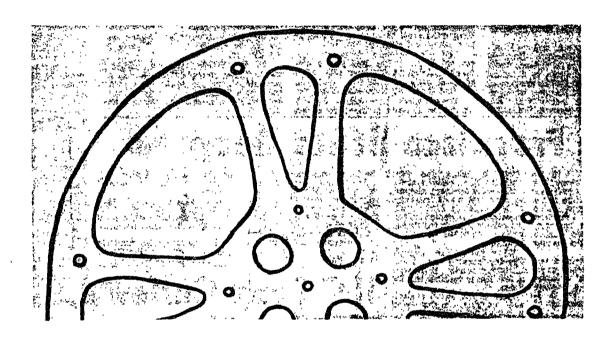

plant materials. Terrence L. Donaldson, a 1968 graduate in chemical engineering from the of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers 1968 Student Contest Problem. The recipient of this A. McLaren White Award receives a $200 prize.

A selection team for Army officer candidates will visit campus on Jan. 14, 15 and 16. Lt. Walter J. Polk from the First U.S. Army Recruiting District Headquarters. Fort Meade, Md., will interview college seniors and graduates at the HUB for the officer candidate enlistment ontion. candidate enlistment option.

The Agricultural and Biological Sciences Library will conduct an orientation program for new faculty members and students on Jan. 6 - 10 and 13 - 15. On each of these days, the designated time will be: 11 to 12 a.m. for undergraduate students and 1 to 2 p m for new faculty members and graduate students students students

WINTER SCHEDULE

THURSDAY 7 and 9 P.M.

HUB AUD.

TICKETS 50c HUB DESK

IVAN THE TERRIBLE, Part I Russia (1944) JAN. 9 Dir. Sergei Eisenstein

IVAN THE TERRIBLE, Part II JAN. 16 Russia (1946) Dir. Sergei Eisenstein

JAN. 23 SIBERIAN LADY MACBETH Poland (1961) Dir. Andrzi Wajda

JAN. 30 M Germany (1931) Dir. Fritz Lang, with Peter Lorre

FEB. 6 YOJIMBO Japan (1961) Dir. Akira Kurosawa, with Toshiro Mifune

FEB. 13 RED DESERT Italy (1964) Dir. Michelangelo Antonioni

WAR OF THE BUTTONS FEB. 20 France (1962) Dir. Yves Robert

FEB. 27 CANCAGEIRO Brazil (1954)

Dir. Lima Barreto

MAR. 6 THE SERVANT England (1963) Dir. Joseph Losey, screenplay by Harold Pinter,

MAR. 13 GO WEST U.S.A. (1925) Written and directed by Buster Keaton

Starring Buster Keaton

With Dirk Bogarde

Womer Predicts Larger Power Role for USG

By ALLAN YODER

Collegian Staff Writer

This is the year for a student power breakthrough in student affairs, Undergraduate Student Government President Jim Womer said yesterday Womer said he thinks "the system." specifically the University Administration, is loosening. "The men in Old loosening. "The men in Old Main are becoming more receptive to responsible student ideas, even if those away from the Administration," he said.

Numerous powers which the University Senate now has, should be transferred to USG, according to Womer. The chartering of student organizations and the student judiciary are two areas in which USG should play an expanded role, he said. "We should get hold of some more authority," Womer added.

Womer mentioned the expected establishment of a

Womer mentioned the expected establishment of a control are not Ritchey's own idea. Womer has been working on putting them into effect since early Fall Term, and womer mentioned the expected establishment of a student bookstore as one way in which students have gained a voice in their affairs. "With the Senate's almost unanimous approval of the bookstore approval of the bookstore resolution, I expect to get a commitment from the Vice President for Business (Stanley H. Campbell) within the week."

Womer said it was USG and other interested students who launched the bookstore drive; "Especially Steve Gerson," Womer added. "Gerson has been the main impetus for the bookstore—he deserves most of the credit."

Womer said he sees the greatest movement toward student participation in policy formulation of a student of a cu l t y - a d m in i stration committee whose f u n c t in was reported last term that it was reported last term to student Affairs Committee has been working along the same lines.

Tom Ritchey, East Halls congressman and S t u de n t Affairs Committee chairman, said he agreed that the Encampment resolutions would be to continually review areas in policy formulation."

Tom Ritchey, East Halls congressman and S t u de n t Affairs Committee chairman, said he agreed that the Encampment resolutions would be to continually review at the Senate's Undergraduate the Senate's Undergraduate working along the same loom the three areas of student control. Last term there was much speculation over what the USG president was planning. When the Bill of Rights was defeated by Congress, some congressmen said Womer wanted it defeated branch it was reported last term that it was reported last term that it was reported last term that the Senate's Undergraduate Student Affairs Committee areas it the Senate's Undergraduate the Senate's Undergraduate the Countrol to continually review areas. "In which students at Thursday night's informal USG meeting he will present at Ethem to continually review at the Senate's Undergraduate the Senate's Undergraduate the Senate's Undergraduate the Calman at

Disease Mild Here

Flu Peaks This Week

By LOUIS ROSEN

Collegian Staff Writer

An outbreak of Hong Kong flu here will reach its peak at the end of this week, according to the head of Ritenour Health Center.

"The opportunity to spread the disease is just starting today (Monday) so that by the end of the week we'll be at the peak number of cases," Dr. John Hargieroad said.

"Fortunately the flu has been mild

Hargieroad said.

"Fortunately the flu has been mild here, about two or three days in duration and no complications have appeared yet," he said.

More than 70 students and area residents and area residents.

dents tested by the Ritenour laboratory have been confirmed as flu victims. About 15 students were admitted to Ritenour over the weekend with flu-like symptoms.

The laboratory at Ritenour works in cooperation with the Pennsylvania Department of Health because University

Park is believed to contain a cross-section of the state's population.

Dr. J. E. Deardorff, a State College pathologist, is working with the staff of Ritenour, which is one of three primary surveillance points set up by the health department.

Hargleroad said that specimens are taken and cultured here and are then sent to Philadelphia for study and analysis.

"Nobody has an immunity to the Hong Konk flu so there is a theoretical possibility of 100 per cent contraction," Hargleroad said. "I have no idea as to how many will actually get it."

The flu epidemic throughout the country is similar to last year's outbreak of Asian flu, although this year's outbreak occurred later and indications are that it will be more extensive.

Complications have arisen from a nationwide stortage of blood donations, variety of flu and, in New York, by a strike of fuel oil deliveries which has increased chances of secondary infec-

Surgeon General William H. Stewart said attempts to combat the epidemic are being frustrated by doctors who use limited supplies of vaccine on low priority patients and by people who need the vaccine but won't use it.

"A lot of people just won't go in for it," he said, emphasizing that elderly persons are the most reluctant.

Persons with chronic diseases and the elderly are the most susceptible to the disease.

In the 1918-19 influenza epidemic which spread throughout the world, an estimated 20 million people died, many from such complications as pneumonia, bronchitis and mastoid and sinus infec-tions.

San Francisco State Reopens

SAN FRANCISCO (#)
A raucous group of about 1,000 minority students, s t r i k i n g teachers and supporters failed Monday to disrupt t he reopening of San Francisco State College. Later, however, the San Francisco Labor Council sanctioned the teacher strike.

"A militant minority of the faculty have hitch-hiked on to the militant students' violenceridden strike for a vicious power grab," said Dr. S. I. Hayakawa, acting president of Hayakawa, acting president of the college.

"I don't know how I am going to stop them from closing the school, but I am going to try...I am not going to accept it closed by anybody." anybody.

New Trouble The action of the council's executive board presaged new trouble for a campus shaken by rioting and vandalism since

Nov. 6, when the Black Students Union called a strike. The union teachers, claiming to represent about one-fourth of the college's 1,100 faculty members, have demanded that the college yield to the student strikers' demands as well as

When the college reopened Monday morning after a long Christmas holiday, there were a few minor scuffles and fist their own.

fights.

Most of the 18,000 students and regular faculty went through a noisy picket line. Arrest Two Pickets non-strikers with bullnorns.

Police arrested two pickets who went onto the campus and attempted to intimidate non-strikers with bullhorns.

One instructor, who refused to identify himself, suffered a bleeding cut on the forehead when four teacher pickets tried to keep him from entering

Hot Line Returns

The Daily Collegian Hot Line will ring in the New Year tomorrow night from 8 to 11. Students with complaints or questions are invited to dial a Collegian Hot Line Reporter

Hot Line is not guaranteed to bring results, but it will air student grievances. In the past, Hot line has answered questions about cockroaches in West Halls and watermelon in the dining halls.

If your roommate doesn't care, your adviser doesn't know, and no one else will listen, give Hot Line a call.

> Congratulations Nittany Lions

On a Job Well Done

from

MUR University Jewelers home of Penn State Class Rings and Jewelry.

116 S. GARNER ST. in the Campus Shopping Center and 220 S. ALLEN ST.

the Humanities Building.
An estimated 300 police were on or near the campus but only a few were in evidence.
They made no move against the four or five AFT pickets in front of major buildings.
Outside the main entrance,

Outside the main entrance,

1 000 persons

at the water.

"scabs" at students passes, through.

Word of the Labor Council sanction spread and the cafeteria began closing at 2 p.m. as union food handlers left.

The teachers union demands more pay, smaller classes and

IFC Party Curfew Extended 1 Hour

The Interfraternity Council voted last night to extend weekend parties one hour past the current 1 a.m. curfew. Final approval of IFC's extended Social Functions Act rests with the Administration's Committee on Student Affairs.

The committee refused to approve a request for extended party hours last Spring Term. At that time, IFC sought 2:30 a.m. parties on Friday and 4:30 a.m. parties on Saturday.

Saturday.

IFC President Eric Prystowsky said the Administration could give him "no concrete reason" for denying the request.

"I can see no reason why the Administration would deny IFC 2 a.m. parties on weekends," Prystowsky said. He pointed out that fraternities already are allowed to have up to three 2 a.m. parties a term.

"If fraternities can handle them (three 2 a.m. parties a term), we can handle them every week," he said.

Prystowsky also told the Council that the main purpose of his IFC administration would be "to clean up the internal workings of the council."

He said executive board members will work to streamline the executive committee setup, balance the budget and initiate changes and improvements in the fraternity system.

In other action, Greek Week Chairman Roger Barton reported that Greek Week had been moved from Jan. 22 through Jan. 27 to Feb. 26 through Mar. 3. Greek Week will include a music fest, bridge tournament, mixed socials concert and art display, he said.

EXPENSIVE?

YOU THINK L.P.Q. IS EXPENSIVE?

BETTER THINK AGAIN...

- 1. Sensational, fashion in shoes with an average price
- 2. The most incredibly beautiful scarves with a top price
- 3. Unique and fun jewelry in the $2-3-4 range.
- 4. One of a kind, and designer dresses and pants at an average range of $20-40.

L.P.Q. EXPENSIVE? NEVER!

L.P.Q. — La Piuma — Quintessence

(Next to the Tavern)

MISS STAKE by James Nutt is among the paintings on exhibit in the Hetzel Union Building gallery through Jan. 19. It is part of a display titled "Fantasy and Figures, Chicago Art Since World War II." Gallery hours are 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. daily.

Shakespeare Troupe Here

Tickets Available

The Oxford and Cambridge Shakespeare Company will present "A Midsummer Night's Dream' at syle and depth of quality not Night's Dream" at 8 p.m. Saturday in Schwab. The play will be followed by a late night revue, "Strictly for Kicks," at 11 p.m. in the Playhouse Theatre.

"Wisually, this 'Dream' is unusually attractive. Hugh to Durrant's designs and an imaginative lighting plot in the production of 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' at the production of the production of 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' at the production of t

The distribution of free tickets will begin at 1:30 tomorrow afternoon and continue from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily at the main desk in the HUB.

The production is sponsored jointly by the departments of English, Theatre and Student Affairs. The event is considered a cultural exchange, as members of the dramatic group will stay with students and faculty.

The theatre group is made up of undergraduates connected with the dramatic societies of Oxford and Cambridge Universities. The Oxford students have joined the existing Cambridge Cambridge Cambridge Cambridge the European Shakespeare Tour for the specific purpose of touring the United States.

Commenting on "A Midsummer Night's Dream," Stephen Wall of the London Guardian said, "The combined resources of Oxford and Cambridge under a professional director certainly on the off-campus nousing problem, rather than place the auspices of the Undergraduate Student Government.

Also, spring elections for TIM Council members were set for April 21.

often seen in undergraduate theatre.

"Visually, this 'Dream' is unusually attractive. H u g h Durrant's designs and an imaginative lighting plot convincingly combine the tinselly world of Pollock pantomimes with the natural hues of a wood near Athens.

TIM Tables Meeting Bill Temporarily

Town Independent Men's Council last night introduced a bill calling for mandatory is committee meetings every two weeks. After a number of a mend ments had been proposed, the bill was tabled until the next meeting.

In other action, the council or the off-campus housing problem, rather than place the problem under the auspices of the Undergraduate Student

Town Shoplifting: A Seasonal Thing

(Continued from page one)
getting rich off "s, so what difference does it make if I take something?"

A Method to the Madness

A Method to the Madness

Drugstores report the most common items stolen are things like toothpaste, mouthwash and soap. Records are one of the biggest single items. Clothing stores find greatest losses on items like socks and belts, scarves and jewelry. In clothing stores, articles are filched by taking several outfits into a dressing room and wearing one out under the customer's own clothes. Things like pens, pencils and nail clippers, normally carried around by people, easily are removed from their packaging and pocketed.

Prosecution Drive

The State College Chamber of Commerce recently initiated a drive to encourage "... all members of the chamber and all retailers in the area to bring their cases (of shoplifting) to prosecution." according to Mong. He stressed that the threat of prosecution was a greater deterrent than a fine. The chamber also is urging all justices to levy more than the minimum fine of $25.

Expressing an opinion shared by several of the merchants, Mong said: "The most devastating thing about shoplifting is that if caught and convicted your names are entered as committing a crime: you have to live with this for the rest of your life. We think this is the most drastic point."

He added: "I would say in the past year things have gotten worse. However, in the past two months, the rate has gone down, and we're hoping this is a trend."

Almost every store manager questioned stated that his store would prosecute anyone found shoplifting. Mong said that "in the past three months, the number of retail outlets that have informed me they are going to prosecute has doubled." However, Guy G. Mills, a justice of the reace in State College, stated that "most of the merchants do not file complaints. I'm quite sure there are many that are not brought before me."

The sophisticated gadgets that have been developed to catch shoplifters are not found in State College; they're too expensive. Two-way mirrors are used, and the rounded mirrors suspended from the ceiling that allow an employee to watch a large area of the store. But the most desirable preventive seems to be more personnel in the store, more expensive than the others and also more effective.

But no matter how much effort is made, much of it is in vain. As one merchant said, "They're too slick for me."

CONTRACTOR CONTRACTOR TO SERVICE TO SERVICE SERVICES AND SERVICES AND

The One Eleven Shop Invites You To Brozuse Our Two Floors Featuring. Our Winter Collection Fine Men's Clothes

THE ONE ELEVEN SHOD 111 South Pugh Street STATE COLLEGE, PA. 16801

FRATERNITY RUSH

FORMAL RUSH BEGINS

January 6th

FOR SECOND TERM AND ABOVE

Monday—Jan. 20 5:00 p.m.

BIDS MAY BE EXTENDED TO 2nd TERM MEN

Monday—Jan. 27 5:00 p.m.

BIDS MAY BE ACCEPTED BY 2nd TERM MEN

ALL 2nd TERM AND ABOVE STUDENTS CAN SIGN UP IN THE IFC OFFICE 203-E HUB

TUESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1969

THE DAILY COLLEGIAN, UNIVERSITY PARK, PENNSYLVANIA

PAGE NINE

Oranges Flavor Fantastic Year

They Had Something to Say In a Big, Speechless Way

Writers across the nation have typed enough words about the 1969 Orange Bowl to fill Webster's Unabridged three times over. They've analyzed Penn State's 15-14 victory with the precision that General Abrams would use in analyzing a Viet Cong ambush.

Break it down, and you'll find there was a key play every minute of every quarter. The mysterious 12th man may serve as a scapegoat for other Kansas mistakes, like the decision to go for a first down rather than a field goel in rather than a field goal in the fourth quarter. Take your pick as to whose fault it was.

So the films may show that So the films may show that: there really were 12 men on the field, and 13, not only once, but four times. So the films may show clips that were never called, or oversights that could have changed the final result.

Yet the final result remains the same, and it will remain, along with the excitement that accompanied it. And so will the memory of the indivuals who created the spectacular, and the insights which they too provided, during the game or otherwise.

It's those individuals - the It's those individuals — the players, coaches, officials, and fans — that will be remembered with the final score. And it's those individuals that made the Orange Bowl a classic in every sense of the word with these

Chuck Burkhart, surrounded by reporters in the chaotic locker room after the game, explaining the play on which he scored the final touchdown:

"I was supposed to hand off to Charlie Pittman on the scissors. I didn't miss the handoff. I just didn't hand off. I don't know why I kept it. I just did."

Charlie Pittman; talking about the same play:

"My first impression when I didn't get the ball was a fumble. Then they tackled me, and I looked over, and Chuck

Head coaches Joe Paterno and Pepper Rodgers, two former quarterbacks, at press conference the day before the PATERNO: Boy, look at Douglass. They sure make quarterbacks different from when we were playing, don't they Pepper?

RODGERS: They sure do.

The following is a drive-by-drive account of Penn State's 15-14 victory over Kansas in the 35th annual Orange Bowl Classic:

FIRST QUARTER

Bowl Classic:

FIRST QUARTER

After Kansas kicked off and State's Charlie Pittman returned to the 20, PSU began a six-play, 33-yard drive. Chuck Burkhart's 18-yard pass to Pittman highlighted the advance, but another aerial was picked off by KU's Mickey Doyle at his own 47.

12:59 — Kansas moved in six plays from its own 42 to the PSU 37 before Donnie Shanklin punted to the Lion nine. A 17-yard Bobby Douglass pass to John Mosier was the big gainer.

10:10 — Pittman's 20-yard end run led State's three-play advance to the PSU 32, but Don Abbey fumbled moments later, and Jayhawk Emery Hicks recovered on the Lion 41.

8:56 — In three plays, Kansas lost 16 yards, with Lions Steve S me a r and Frank Spaziani dumping Douglass for 15 of them. Bill Betts subsequent punt traveled to the end zone.

7:28 — Two runs by Bob Campbell moved the ball from the 20 to the 39, but then Burkhart threw his second interception, this time to Pat Hutchens at the State 45.

6:40 — Kansas' following drive netted the first score of the evening, on nine ground plays. Shanklin covered 17 and

6:40 — Kansas' inhowing drive netted the first score of the evening, on nine ground plays. Shanklin covered 17 and John Riggins 21 of the 45 yards, with Mike Reeves moving the final two yards. Bell's placement was good. Kansas 7, PSU 0 (3:05).

nansas 7, PSU 0 (3:05).
2:59 — Campbell returned the kickoff to the State 29, but the Lions could move just inches short of a first down in three plays. Brezna punted to the Jayhawk 14.

Jayhawk 14.

1:51 — Donglass missed one pass and was dropped by Spaziani trying to throw another, setting up a Bell punt to the Lion 47. Paul Johnson returned it backwards to the 43.

:21 - Tom Cherry carried for four

SECOND QUARTER

SECOND QUARTER
Two more plays netted a yard loss, and Brezna's punt was caught at the Kansas six yard line.

14:18 — Two running plays and an incompleted pass netted five yards for the Jayhawks with Bell punting out of bounds at his own 47.

12:57 — Campbell, Pittman and Cherry each carried twice on State's six-play drive for a TD, with Campbell hitting the line for 16 on one carry, and Pittman covering the final 13 yards off left tackle. Rusty Garthwatte converted. PSU 7, Kansas 7 (11:08).

11:02 — On Shanklin's kickoff return.

Quote of the Year We're not gonna win them all-not with our schedule . . ."-

> Joe Paterno, September 19, 1968

REPORTER: What was your greatest pass, Joe?
PATERNO: You mean a spiral?

REPORTER: How was the kickoff luncheon yesterday?
PATERNO: Well, I thought Pepper's singing was pretty good, but his dancing was terrible terrible.

RODGERS: Yeah, Joe was the star. We all thought he was real cute. He was the star of the ball.

PATERNO: Pepper, you're just just saying that...because it's true. I got sore feet to prove it.

Linebacker Rich Abernethy, who was apparently supposed to leave the field on State's two-point conversion and was thus termed the famous "12th thus termed the famous "12th man:"

"Nobody tapped me to come out. How can you live something like this down? You feel embarrassed. You feel responsible. You don't care what the people in the stands think. You care about what the players think. That's the hardest thing."

Pepper Rodgers, in the locker room after the crushing last-second defeat:
"The team didn't lose this game. I did. Nobody else but me. I had an extra back in there. It was my decision to run on fourth and one (at the Penn State five midway through the final veried) and through the final period) and it was a mistake — I should have gone for the field goal."

Joe Paterno, in the locker room after his greatest victory, when asked who's number one:

"Look. All I know is one thing. There's only one team in the country that's all 11-0. There's only one team that hasn't lost in 19 straight games. I'll tell you, if you put this team in another section of the country, a lot more guys would be griping about the rankings."

Bob Campbell, lying on a taping table in the locker room and talking of his finest minute

My famous pass was a long in football: screen to the left halfback. "After I caught that pass

Story of a Spectacle

Kansas was called for clipping, the ball moving to the 18. Douglass hit Mosier for 14 yards and Shanklin for Alone on consecutive passes, but from the State 23, Jack Ham and Steve Smear dropped the Jayhaw's twice for losses totaling 9 yards. Neal Smith returned Shanklin's punt to the

Lion 33. 8:10 — Two running plays and a

8:10 — Two running plays and a pass only gained nine yards, and Brezna punted to the Kansas 20.
6:24 — Douglass was tackled for an eight-yard loss by Mike Reid, and a pass to Junior Riggins was tipped by Onkotz and intercepted by Mike Smith, who returned it to the KU

11. 5:33 — Campbell gained two, and then Cherry fumbled, Jayhawk Vernon

Vanoy recovering at the seven yard line, 5:24 — Three running plays totaled nine yards, and Bell punted to the Lion 33.

Lion 33.

3:33 — Burkhart's 12-yard pass to Ted Kwalick and Campbell's 14-yard run brought first downs, but two runs and a pass lost two yards, Brezna following with a 31-yard punt returned to the Kansas 19.

1:42 — Three Jayhawk plays gained eight yards, and Bell punted to the State 45.
:49 — The Lions gained three first downs as Burkhart ran for nine and passed to Kwalick for 13 in the late drive. Campbell gained 14 yards on three carries, but on the last play of the half, Garthwaite missed a 31-yard field goal.

THIRD QUARTER

THIRD QUARTER

14:53 — Moving from the 32 after the kickoff, Kansas moved ahead nine and back nine in three plays, with Dennis Onkotz dropping Douglass for the major loss. Bell punted and Penn State took over at the PSU 33.

13:05 — The Lions put together three first downs on a 13-play, 66-yard drive. Burkhart passed to Kwalick for 11 and 30 yards and to Greg Edmonds for 12. From the five yard line, Cherry gained three yards, and then was stopped two more times by Emery Hicks at the one, Pitt man was finally stopped, again by Hicks. for a two-yard loss, and Kansas took over.

8:05 — Douglass' passing and running a two-yard loss, and Kansas took over. 8:05 — Douglass' passing and running accounted for most of the yardage in the Jayhawks' 72-yard, 14-play drive. He hit Junior Riggins for 11 yards, George McGowan for 16 and John Jackson for 19, while carrying for 27 yards himself. However, Bell missed a 42-yard field goal to end the advance at the PSU 26.

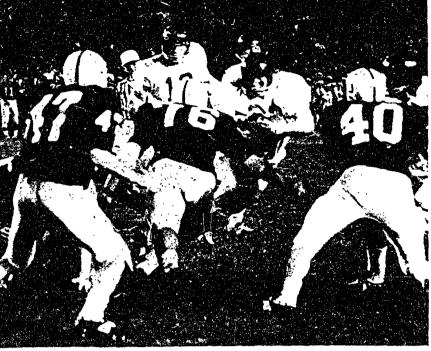

(47 yards in the final minute) we had the momentum and there was no way they were going to stop us. Then (on the extra point) I knew if I could find a hole, I was going to get in. I just knew I had to get over and win the ball game. I'll probably never see another yard and a half like that."

Steve Smear, the biggest 218-pound tackle in the country, just 10 minutes after the moment of victory:

"I thought we were going to win it the whole time. But Mike (Reid) and I were just nervous wrecks, and neither of us wanted to watch that extra point play, so we didn't. We all just never quit. Nobody quit We gave the game hall quit. We gave the game ball to Coach Paterno. He deserves

Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, after congratulating the team and emerging from the locker

"We had them all the way." (-By Ron Kolb)

GOING NOWHERE but into the clutches of Lion defender Steve Smear (76) is Kansas fullback John Riggins after taking the handoff from Bobby Douglass (10). The Johnson boys, Pete (40) and Paul (47) close in on the play. It was defense like this that held

Smiles, Tears in KU Locker Room

Pepper Jokes At Loss

Assistant Sports Editor

Pepper Rodgers is a man of great personal charm. He's a witty, talkative and unpredictable Georgian who led Kansas out of the football wilderness to the promised land of the Orange Bowl in just two seasons. Along the way to Miami, Rodgers picked up a considerable amount of fortitude as well as a nice tan. That resiliance came in handier than anyone could have predicted when Pepper's Jayhawks suffered what must surely have been the bitterest defeat in his coaching career.

Sounds of Silence

The irrepressable Rodgers sat in a coaches' dressing room adjacent to the main locker room where his psychologically shattered players were dressing in silence. The funereal atmosphere ended at the doorway, however. A ring of reporters stood around Rodgers as he smiled through the pain of sudden tragedy and answered all the questions without hesitation.

"Well, you have to give us credit for one thing," Rodgers quipped, smiling. "We turned what would have been a dull win for us into an exciting win for them."

But the crowd of questioners hadn't come to hear Rodgers make jokes. They wanted to know why he had made certain moves, especially concerning a move ironically reminiscent of Joe Paterno's "go for broke gamble" in last year's Gator

With the ball on Penn State's five yard-line and Kansas

2:34 - Two passes and a run gained 2:34 — Two passes and a run gained eight yards, and Brezna punted to the Kansas 46.

1:11 — Three Jayhawk plays netted only a yard.

FOURTH QUARTER

Bell punted out of bounds at the 14:49 — Three running plays resulted in a fourth-and-inches situation.

resulted in a fourth-and-inches situation, and Brezna punted to Shanklin at the Kansas 47. Shanklin raced down the right sideline and then back up the middle to the Lion seven yard line. 13:12 — John Riggins carried twice and scored on a one-yard plunge. Bell kicked the extra point. Kansas 14, PSU 7 (12:38).

kicked the extra point. Kansas 14, PSU 7 (12:38).

12:33 — From their own 23, the Lions could only move 13 yards in six plays, and Campbell punted to the Kansas 28.

10:37 — Douglass passed twice to Mosier, for 16 and 21 yards, and Penn State was penalized 15 more on a personal foul as the hall moved to the PSU 14. John Riggins carried once for no gain and Shanklin twice for nine yards. Then, on a fourth and one, Pete and Paul Johnson stopped Riggins at the five for no gain.

7:20 — Two incomplete passes and one. Pete and Paul Johnson stopped Riggins at the five for no gain.

7:20 — Two incomplete passes and a two-yard toss set up another Campbell punt, fielded at the Lion 40 yard line.

6:25 — Riggins carried twice for a first down, but Smear and Onkotz stopped three subsequent running plays at the line, and Ham tackled Junior Riggins at the 31 after a fake punt.

3:32 — Burkhart was dropped for a 12-yard loss and a third-down pass to Cherry fell incomplete. Campbell's punt rolled dead at the Kansas 33.

2:44 — Douglass was first stopped by Lincoln Lippincott at the line, and then lost 13 yards on two plays when Reid rushed the passer. Neal Smith partially blocked Bell's punt, which rolled dead at the 50.

1:16 — As he was hit by two linemen, Burkhart connected with Campbell on a 47-yard pass play across the middle to the Kansas three yard line. Cherry was stopped twice for no gain, and then Burkhart faked a handoff to Pittman and rolled left for the score.

1:17 — Burkhart passed incomplete to Campbell on the two-point conversion

217 — Burkhart passed incomplete to Campbell on the two-point conversion try, but Kansas was penalized for having 12 men on the field. On the second attempt. Campbell sprinted around left end for the score. PSU 15, Kansas 14.

:08 - After a kickoff return to the 46. Douglass tried a final pass which fell incomplete near midfield.

fourth and one instead of kicking a field goal which would have put the game out of State's reach.

Pete and Paul Johnson slammed down John Riggins for no gain and that play eventually proved to be one of the game-winning defensive highlights.

'It was hard for me to know exactly how far we had to go," Rodgers said, "but if it's less than two yards I usually try for it. I felt that even if we didn't get it we would still have good field position on them." Went Ahead

Then Rodgers smiled broadly as he fielded other questions.

"What did Penn State do better than us? If they did anything better it was to recruit those two big guys (Mike Reid and Steve Smear) for the middle of the defensive The patter went on and on, hiding the disappointment.

but one person in the locker room couldn't hold back the emotions released by the defeat. Linebacker Rick Abernethy sat bent over, hands on his knees and his face buried in his hands. He was crying inconsolably and teammates were trying to shield him from prying television cameras and inquiring writers. "He was the 12th man on the field" someone whispered, referring to the penalty that gave the Lions a second chance Abernethy was oblivious to all. He just sat with his head down and cried. Gradually, visitors grew to feel sorry for him and moved away, allowing the senior who had just played his last game to sit alone.

Other emotions were vented by Kansas players and few were as touching as Abernethy's plight. On the way to the locker room the players were cursing each other and there was almost a fist fight outside the door. Disappoint ment boiled over into harsh words but the players managed to present a united front inside the locker room.

A Legend Appears Standing unobstructed at one side of the coach's dressing room was a person whose name eclipses all but the greatest on the contemporary sports scene. He carried a small camera and was snapping pictures of Rodgers and other coaches Hidden behind dark-rimmed glasses was the legendary Jim Ryon, world record holder in the mile and an undergraduate

Ryun revealed that he was taking pictures for a Topcka, Kan, newspaper and had done so for four years "Jun's my favorite miler," Rodgers laughed. "He can play on my Pepper joked on with reporters, trying to make their think he wasn't affected by the stunning defeat. But it slipped out at the end as Rodgers laughed and said to a writer seated near him, "You can quote me on one thing-Damn. Damn. That's all I have to say '

Orange Bowl Stats Show Close Contest

	PSU	KU	Punt Returns			٠,
Frank Danier	17	16		No	Aye.
First Downs	10	''	Scantin	2	45
Puthing	7		Angerson	,	7
Passing	ó	ï	Kickoff Returns
Peralty				No	Yds
Puthing Plays	55	57	Ju Piggirs	1	71
Yds Gained Rushing	275	155	Retves	•	21
Yds Lost	18	79			15
Her You Pushing	207	75	Shearin	•	",
Passes Attempted .	23	15	PENN STATE
Passes Completed	17	7	Rushing			,
Vat Gained Passing	134	765		Att	Yds.	÷
Total Offense	361	341	Campbell	1.8	151
Total Petuers tinterception	١,		Pritman	14	54
punts, kickoffs)	13	100	Crerry	13	71
Passes Had Intercepted	7	Ť	Aptev	· 'A	15
Punts	÷	10	Ruckhari Ruckhari		- 4
	25 1	38 3		;	,
Punting Average	• ,	~ ;	Pamich
Fumbles	,	÷	Passing			·
Fumptes Last		2 10.3	Alt Com			4
Penalties	1 13	2 10 3	Byrahart 12 21	7	154
KANSAS			Receiving
Kensar			H.			+1
Rushing			r water
	Att.	Yes	Campbell
to Propins	18	47	Pittman
Shankiin .	15	25	Edmonds
Remyes	3	7	Chairy		•
Jecrson	ī	5	Punting
Ju Diogras	,	•		No	Ave.
Douglass	22		B. rezea	4	38 3
	••		Camppe'!	3	37 3
Pessing			Punt Returns			(
Att Co	mp. Int	Y 44.		No	Ave.
Dougless 17	• 1	165	N Servin	1		,
Shankin I	0 0		Pa Johnson	2	- 1
Receivins		-	Kickell Returns	-
			11.04 pr: 410	No.	Yds
		. 7 41 .	Camptell	2	37
Mosier	5 77			- 1	- íí
Shanelin	1 12		Pittman		1-15	Ĭ.
Jackson	1 19	٥	Penn State 0	0 0
McGowan .	1 14	6			/
	1 11		Kan-Reeves 2 run (Belt	AICK!
JU RIGGIMA				(Gert
Ju Riggins
Ju Riggins Punting			FICE)
Penling	Ne.	Ave.	Ken-John Riggins 1 run	(Bell	PICEI	.:
	Ne. 1 2	Ave. 40 4 30		(Bell	PSCR! FUR!	ŝ

kolb's korner

After a Bowl, It's Jcey Time

Collegian Sports Editor

About the only things you can do following a 15-14 Orange Bowl victory, six days ex post facto, is to show off the tan you never got in Miami, tell Northern friends how the game was "unbelievable," and "fantastic," and other time-worn adjectives like that, and give out awards.

It's that time again-time for the distribution of special post-season "Joey" awards. And with that classic contest outdrawing the Beverly Hillbillies and Hawaii Five-O in the ratings, the resultant "Joeys" are numerous and most deserved. As your name is called, please advance to the stand and accept your prize:

The fifth annual "television influence" award goes to NBC for its unexpected fourth. quarter presence. You'll recall that Donnie Shanklin set up Kansas' final TD which almost proved the clincher, when he returned a punt from his own 47 to the PSU seven yard line. As soon as Shanklin took the ball, Lion head coach Joe Paterno began screaming at offi-cials about a first and then a second clip on the "I'm sorry coach," an official replied, running behind the play. "I tripped over some TV cables and couldn't see." A replay clearly shows the two clips Accepting the award will be that red-faced cameraman in the back row.

KOLB

The "redemption" Joey also goes to NBC for its photo-journalistic excellence moments later. As Penn State received a second chance at the decisive two-point conversion, one Lion player refused to watch the action. The cameras caught the moment.

The players huddled, and NBC zoomed in on 238-pound Mike Reid who was facing the crowd, his back to the action and his face buried in his hands. Then the hands slowly moved forward from the face and formed a vec. and Mike Reid's eyes closed for obvious silent prayer, With or without the outside help, State scored the winning two points. And NBC scored a red star.

The "Bronko Nagurski Crushing Award" goes to sophomore tackle Charlie Zapiec. Originally, that second extra point attempt was to be run to the right side, away from All-American defensive end John Zook. Then the crowd got noisy enough to bring about an official time out, and Paterno decided to sweep to the left-and at Zook.

Campbell took the handoff, and as he moved away from Burkhart, Zapiec paralleled him, pulling across from the right side. When Zook made his move toward the ball carrier, Zapiec lowered his head and lifted the 235-pound senior off his feet. setting him down in the end zone after Campbell had scored. When asked about the block, Zapiec said, "I don't remember." Zook did. unfortunately.

The "Wrongway Corrigan Memorial Judgement Award" has been won by the Orange Bowl Selection Committee for Most Valuable Player. Five minutes before the game was over, ballots were handed out, and the writers voted.

carried 18 times for 101 yards, caught a 47-yard pass to set up the final TD, scored the decisive two points on a conversion run and punted three times to keep Kansas in its own territory late in the Chuck Burkhart scored the decisive touchdown on some quick thinking, hit Campbell with the late pass and totaled 154 yards through the air. Mike Reid dropped Douglass twice in the last two minutes to set up the final drive, and tackle mate Steve Smear led both teams in tackles. Kansas' Donnie Shanklin took home the trophy. He rushed 15 times for 20 yards. He returned a punt 40 yards and he caught a pass. He didn't score. His team didn't win. Congratulations.

To Mike Reid goes "The One That Got Away" Joey, While teammate Steve Smear demonstrating seasickness over the side of the boat, Reid exhibited his prowess with the rod and reel when he hauled in a 62-pound hammerhead shark from the Atlantic waters. Which would have been quite a feat, except it didn't count. The annual post-Orange Bowl fishing contest between the two teams involved game fish only, and that excludes sharks. Meanwhile, the Kansas players can pick up their fishy trophy for out-tunning the Lions.

Reid, by the way, is also the recipient of the "Van Cliburn Honorary Award," having serenaded several hotel visitors with spontaneous evening performances at the piano. It was Reid who, when the team spent several hotel days in West Palm Beach in the midst of that city's retirement area, said, "I always wondered what it was like to spend a week in a convalescent home." And it was Reid who couldn't sleep after the game and at 5 a.m. could be heard performing original compositions at the keyboard.

Reserve defensive end Jim Sample is an overwhelming choice for the "Bart Maverick Sweep-(Continued on page eleven)

Penn State won the game, Bob Campbell

levine's sports line

Pass, Prayer & Confidence

Collegian Editor

The Penn State fans didn't believe their eyes. They had watched in glum silence as Kansas held its 14-7 lead throughout the fourth quarter. then screamed joys of disbelief when the Lions won it with only 15 seconds left.

But still, they must not have believed the impossible rally that had won the Orange Bowl for the Lions. For the Penn Staters-students. alumni and friends-streamed back to their Miami Beach hotels to watch the taped replay on tele-

In Jon Fox's room at the Saxony, Jim Simpsor and Al Derogatis had to compete with "Short Yell State," but the television message came through.

The Lions had won 15-14, and yes, it was a miracle. Inconsistent Chuck Burkhart threw the best pass of his life while being knocked down, made the clutch run of his life while the final seconds ticked away, and Bob Campbell ran for the biggest 54 inches in the history of Penn State football. It was all there on television just as it had LEVINE been in the Orange Bowl. But Penn State's 15-14 come-from-catastrophe victory was still too incredible to comprehend.

"I still don't believe it," Jon Fox said. Penn
"I still don't believe it," be watched the State's Mr. Spirit looked dazed as he watched the game for the second time. Jon's thinning hair was plastered against his forehead and his voice was hoarse from cheering. But he looked every part the winner in his Numero Uno sweatshirt, even if he didn't believe that it had happened.

In the Penn State locker room after the game, the scene was different. The Lions had won, and they knew it, and some of them even expected to win all the time. Some had expected to win when Penn State was down by seven points with two minutes to go and Kansas in possession. They were confident before the pass, the two runs, and a prayer, and that is probably why Penn Staters laughed after the game and Kansans cried. It was more than just the dying thought that "we might have a chance if . . ."—it was the "keep hitting them, we're gonna win" attitude, and it worked.

"I thought we could win it after the punt was partially blocked," said All-American end Ted Kwalick. "The guys had confidence in each other. We knew what we could do."

Halfback Bob Campbell knew what he could do. That's why he told quarterback Burkhart to "throw the ball to the left of the goal post and I'll be there." Burkhart did, Campbell was, and Penn State had 'em all the way. Of course, the Lions had help from the Kansas players, who had trouble counting to 11 during the final few plays.

"I never give up until the gun sounds," Campbell told reporters after the game. "None of us do."

And because none of them do, coach Joe Paterno had confidence, too. Even after Penn State punted with slightly more than two minutes to play, Paterno thought his charges would come

"There was a lot of time left," Paterno said. "We had good defense, and I felt if we could get the ball back, we could get it down there. I was real proud of the kids."

After the Lions got the ball down there, and Chuck Burkhart added to his heroics by inventing a new play for a touchdown run. Penn State's confidence received an additional boost. It had the help of prayers from defensive tackles Mike Reid and Steve Smear. Neither of the rugged linemen saw the two-point conversion as both sat on the bench with tightly closed eyes and clasped hands.

And that's all it took. Confidence, a pass, two runs and a prayer.

You Can Find It Quick and Easy At

Cooking Utensils . Cleaning Products • Many Items for Your Room or Apartment

Groceries

-PLUS-

Right Now You Can SAVE During Our

JANUARY WHITE SALE

Blankets
 Curtains

On • Sheets and Pillowcases

• Pillows • Rugs

and many other items for you room or apartment!

Open Monday, Thursday and Friday Until 9-Tues., Wed. and Sat. until 5:30

✓ EVERYTHING IN HOUSEWARES . . .

✓ Hardware ✓ Paint ✓ Clothes

Furniture (Finished and Unfinished)

"Fix-Up" Supplies & Lumber

2TUOH

✓ Floor Covering

ONE STOP

SHOPPING CENTER

Err . . . there WERE 12 of Them on the Field

State Ranked Second In Final Football Polls

Penn State's season-long chase after the top spot in the wire service rankings of major college football teams fell short last week by the tiny margin of one place.

Both the Associated Press and United Press International conducted polls of writers and coaches following the bowl games and both placed the undefeated Lions second in the State received two first place votes in the final AP voting, gathering 782 points. Ohio State. 10-0 and a 27-16 victor over Southern California in the Rose Bowl, rolled up 44 of 49 first place ballots for 988 points and was named national champion. champion.

Highest Ever

The second place ranking is the highest ever achieved by a Penn State eleven. The undefeated 1947 team was voted fourth, the 1962 team ninth and last year's Gator Bowl team ended the regular season ranked 10th.

Texas, 9-1-1, won nine games in a row including a 36-13 trouncing of Tennessee in the Cotton Bowl and was voted third in the final poll, up one Southern Cal fell two places to fourth following its defeat in the Rose Bowl. Notre Dame, which does not go to bowl games, finished the season 7-2-1 and was ranked fifth.

Arkansas leaped from ninth place to sixth after upsetting Georgia, 16-2, in the Sugar Bowl. The Bulldogs slipped three places to eighth.

Kansas, the victims of State's last minute Orange Bowl heroics, fell from sixth to seventh. Missouri shattered favored Alabama, 35-10 in the Gator Bowl and leaped into the too 10 missing with the season and leaped into the too 10 missing with the season and season an the top 10, missing ninth. Purdue, 8-2, which did not go to a bowl, wound up 10th.

Oklahoma, 7-4, dropped to 11th after losing to Southern Methodist in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl, 28-27. Michigan, 8-2, was 12th, and Tennessee, 8-2-1, was 13th. The Vols dropped out of the top National scoring leader Houston finished 18th on a 6-2-2 record, Louisiana State moved into the top 20 on the strength of a Peach Bowl win over Florida State and Ohio University ranked 20th to close out the AP top 20 teams.

Oregon State, 7-3, was 15th, Auburn, 7-4, was 16th and Alabama, 8-3 after losing the Gator Bowl, was 17th.

The final Top 20, with first-place votes in parentheses, season records, including bowl games, and total points. Points awarded for first 15 picks on basis of 20-18-16-14-12-10-9-8-:

1.	Ohio State (44)	10-0		968
2.	Penn State (2)	11-0		782
3.	Texas (2)	9-1-1		762
4. 5.	South Calif.	9-1-1		693
о. 6.	Notre Dame	7-2-1		482
7.	Arkansas (1)	10-1		478
	Kansas	9-2		465
8.	Georgia	8-1-2		349
9.	Missouri	8-3		297
10.	Purdue	8-2		263
11.	Oklahoma	7-4		257
12.	Michigan	8-2		197
13.	Tennessee	8-2-1		165
14.	South. Methodist	8-3		143
15.	Oregon State	7-3	_	105
16.	Auburn	7-4		36
17.	Alabama	8-3		32
18.	Houston	6-2-2		31
19.	Louisiana State	8-3		23
20.	Ohio U.	10-1		22

garamas reasona mckee's madness madness madness

A Wasted Effo

By DON McKEE

Assistant Sports Editor

Three well groomed young men strode into the spotter's booth high above the Orange Bowl. They wore tight fitting blue shirts, bright ties and football shoes. All had close cropped hair and were serious and business-like. The trio was so All American that people close by could almost smell' Mom's homemade apple pie baking in an imaginary oven.

The Boy Scout image ended abruptly when one man picked up a phone and began talking to Pepper Rodgers on Kansas' bench. These were the spotters, the men who read and analyze opponent's play patterns and call them back to the bench during the game.

Play books were spread out on the desk, pens were held at the ready and the telephones were never separated from the ears of the two assistant coaches who called back the information.

The ritual was conducted in a solemn, almost military fashion. One coach was so intent on studying the empty field that he neglected to stand up for the Star Spangled Banner and remained glued to his seat, nervously chewing a pencil.

When the long-awaited matchup between Kansas and Penn State finally got underway, after a 30-foot-tall model of Uncle Sam had led the fans in the pledge of allegiance, the coaches went into action.

On Penn State's second drive one coach started gesticulating wildly and screaming. "Use the 'spread H'." He nodded his satisfaction when three Jayhawk defenders slammed into Lion fullback Don Abbey, causing him to fumble.

As Kansas lined up on offense the coaches in the spotting booth called for the "Oklahoma spread." Eavesdroppers were wondering if was a new butter substitute, but the Kansas formation on the next play showed a strung-out line with two split ends and two slot backs. The Jayhawks' vaunted quarterback, Bobby Douglass, threw an incomplete pass anyway.

The coaches went on and on, talking in a code that few fans ever hear. "Blue right." "Z cross" and

"slant" were called by the spotters

as the game wore on. Occasionally the leader of the trio would ask to speak to a specific player and would give him special instructions or congratulate him on a good play. But it was mostly code.

The press box-to-bench conversation revealed the uglier side of college football, too. When State's All-American tight end, Ted Kwalick, was bounced out of bounds and shaken up momentarily, the coaches went wild with joy.

"Yahoo, yah got him down," one yelled to the bench as Kwalick lay on the sideline attempting to catch his breath. All three were cheering, hoping fervently that the injured player might never return to the game. Every injury to the other team would be a victory for their side.

It wound up as a night of small victories for Kansas. When Penn State punted the ball back to the Jayhawks with just 2:10 left, still trailing, 14-7, the Kansas coaches were ecstatic.

'Now just see if we can get two little minutes out of the clock, Bobby," one of the spotters instructed Douglass. "Keep it on the ground and keep it simple."

It never worked out. The Lions stopped the Jayhawks cold, blocked a punt and rallied to within one point on spectacular plays by Bob Campbell and Chuck Burkhart. Now coaches sat ashen-faced, neglecting to call in plays because the tension was so unbearable.

When State missed its first attempt at the winning two-point conversion, the spotting trio exploded with wild yells which suddenly turned to curses when everyone realized that an official was waving a penalty

One coach was pounding the glass panel with the telephone and all three seemed to be in shock. When Campbell slanted across the goal line carrying the winning points the Kansas coaches fell into an eerie silence.

As they filed silently out of the glass cubicle the two telephones hung uselessly from the bench, looking for all the world like deadmen hanging from a noose.

was to was the but $

Handball Entries Due By Thursday For IM Activity will see that the decident in the graph of the Entries for the intramural handball singles competition will be taken at the Intramural office in Rec Hall until Thursday at 4:30 p.m.

Play will begin next week in the graduate, independent, fraternity, and dormitory divisions.

Phi Gamma Delta defeated Delta Upsilon in sudden death overtime in the fraternity touch football championships held last term.

The continuation of the intramural basketbal competition began last night as play resumed at Rec Hall.

Here's your opportunity to take your favorite girl out for a great evening of bowling fun and save money!

Man 2000 **

Friday Nights at Armenara Lanes, for every game you bowl, your date may bowl a game free of charge! For each game a guy bowls his date bowls a game free. So fellows, take your favorite girl to in Armenara Plaza, on Sowers Street and you can both bowl for the price of one Friday nights, 9 to 1

ARMENARA LANES

Saturday night bowling
3 games for $1,00
after midnight

NOW!

MANY STYLES in the BEST of Men's Clothing are available TO YOU at

> during its FIRST ANNUAL WINTER SALE

The BARON

STARTING THURSDAY

The Baron, Lid Terrace Level

234 EAST COLLEGE AVENUE STATE COLLEGE, PENNSYLVANIA (814) 238-5167

Mon. & Thurs. Open to 9:00 p.m.

clowns. No hoopla. No

This is an event for the serious car buyer. The man who has X num-ber of dollars to spend and is determined to get his money's worth and

Come to a Chevrolet Showroom during our Value Showdown. Ask the man to show you, on paper, how you can order most any 1969 Chevrolet with a big V8 and automatic transmission for less than you could last year.

Come in and spend some time.

Dig, probe, ask questions, take notes. You owe it to yourself to be thorough.
Go for a drive.
Get a free sample of Chevrolet's luxurious full-coil, cushioned ride. Shut the windows and see how fresh the interior stays, thanks to Astro

Ventilation. Feel the kick of the biggest standard V8 in our field. Then go down the street or across town and see how we stack up against Those Other Cars.

We think you'll wind up with a

More people do, you know.

Putting you first, keeps us first.

The Chevrolet Value Showdown is on.

Collegian Ads Bring Results

After a Bowl, It's Joey Time

(Continued from page nine)

stakes" prize. In trips to the dog races and the jai alai courts, Sample made pari-mutual wagering look like kid stuff as he picked the winners and walked away with a chubby wallet.

At the same time, Pennsylvania governor Raymond P. Shafer can step forward and claim his Joey for being the "Most Unfortunate Winner." Kansas governor Robert Docking had bet Gov. Shafer a Buffalo that the Jayhawks would win, and Gov. Shafer wagered a pine tree. Well, the Buffalo is ours. So if you see some big black wooly thing eating your petunias in the back yard . . .

Penn State offensive backfield coach George Welsh and Mrs. Sue Paterno have been named winners of the annual "Arthur Murray Rug-Cutting" trophy. Their show-stopping twist at the post-game awards banquet simply overshadowed Joe Paterno's rendition of the jitterbug. Sorry, Joe.

However, the final award, that given to the person who has shown the greatest insight and has revealed the "Most Valid Announcement of the Year," goes to Joe Paterno himself, namesake of the Joey award.

The entire Nittany Lion team had finally escaped the clutches of ecstatic fans and had reached the Orange Bowl locker room. For the moment, everyone but players and coaches was barred from entering.

The happy squad gathered around the center of the room, and Joe Paterno moved to the table in the middle and climbed on top. Then, with both hands leading a chorus of shouts, began that old familiar chant: "We're Number One, We're Number One . . ." The phrase was repeated over and over in a deafening uproar.

No one deserves a Joey more than Joe.

THE COMMISSION OF STREET ASSOCIATION

—Collegian Photos by Pierre Bellicini
CAPPING A great career with a fine performance, State's All-American tight end Ted Kwalick led all receivers with six catches in the Orange Bowl. Here he leaps to grab a Chuck Burkhart pass while Kansas defender Dave

Steelers Want Joe; McMullen Departs

Penn State's football success over the last two seasons has already begun breaking up the Nittany Lion coaching staff. One assistant coach has moved to a head coaching job, another is looking at a head coaching job and head coach Joe Paterno has been offered a position in professional football.

interior offensive line coach, signed a contract Dec. 17 to become head football coach at San Jose State.

Naval Academy.

Welsh, a 1956 graduate of the Academy, was a star quarterback for the Middies for three seasons, leading the 1953 team to a 7-2 record and a victory over Mississippi in the Sugar Bowi. In 1954 he lead the nation in total offense. After serving seven years in the Navy, Welsh joined the Penn State coaching staff in 1963.

Paterna is reported to have Paterno is reported to have received a contract offer of $70,000 a year for five years from the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Lions head coach of the last three seasons has said he would like to stay at Penn State but will consider the Pittsburgh offer. His record as head coach is 24-7-1.

Joseph H. McMullen, State's at San Jose State.

The San Jose job is the second head coaching position McMullen has held. He was head coach at Akron from 1954 to 1960 and was an assistant at Penn State for six years.

George T. Welsh, offensive backfield coach, was interviewed at Annapolis, Md. last weekend regarding the head coaching vacancy at the Naval Academy.

Welsh, a 1956 graduate of

Also Mac's Tailoring Unlimited

Right Next Door Free Pickup and Delivery

1968 Nittany Lions...

An Extraordinary Team

(Editor's note: Sandy Padwe, columnist for the Phila-delphia Inquirer, was sports editor of the Daily Collegian from 1959 to 1961. His reflections on a college football season which will never be forgotten appeared in yester-day's Inquirer and are reprinted here:)

By SANDY PADWE

It is one of the saddest, most moving songs in the world, a song which always sends shivers through the body. And when "Auld Lang Syne" was played this New Year's Eve, there seemed to be an especially deep significance to it.

For the best things only come once throughout a lifetime and on the next day something would end on the scarred grass of the Orange Bowl. It could end three different ways, but no matter which, the outcome could not change what had passed before.

That it ended happily for Penn State and that it ended the way it did, so dramatically, should not have surprised those who had followed this team through the 1968 football season. This was an unforgettable team, the most unforgettable this writer has been privileged to observe.

So much in college sport is fraudulent. So much emphasis is misplaced. So much perspective lost. So much of it is imperfect, not from a won-loss standpoint, but from what it teaches its participants.

Right now the architect of this Penn State team is weighing an offer to coach a professional football team. If the people who run the Pennsylvania State University really are committed to the finest in education, they will see that Joe Paterno has no cause to leave their University. For in this man they have a unique educator. Not just a football coach, but an educator. And in this taut, nerve-end era, our educators must not be wasted on something as trivial as professional football.

Within the span of 76 seconds Wednesday night, the first night of the New Year, you learned just how fine an educator Joe Paterno is. It had nothing to do with strategy-though there never was any doubt that his team would go for two points to win the Orange Bowl game against Kansas.

Those final 76 seconds were of great importance. In essence, all coaches hope for 76 seconds like Penn State had. Not many see their teams achieve it. Few coaches can stand on the sidelines and watch as their wishes and hopes and philosophy are borne in confident, workmanlike fashion toward a successful end while all around there is chaos.

Coaches spend a career preparing a team for the 76 seconds which transformed Penn State from a sure loser to a winner. Actually, it is not quite fair to simply cite the last 76 seconds. It should be the last two minutes and four seconds. For it was at that point that Kansas had the ball with a first down on its 38

Coaches prepare for this situation in different ways. Some try to physically beat their athletes into a winning performance. Others make threats, cajole. plead. And it always seems that the coaches whose teams never succeed in the crucial moments are the loudest proponents of the theory that what happens on the football field is going to determine our fate much later in life. They are—though they wouldn't see the irony—correct.

Joe Paterno is not a preacher. He is not an Evangelist. He is not a loud man. He is only an honest man who answers questions when asked. He is not a perfeet man, however, and would be the first to admit it.

So a perfect season came down to 2:04 in a football game with 77,719 screaming at a finish which

HABERDASHERY

 $\mathcal{M}_{ac} \mathcal{S}_{ez}$... Have a Formal Coming Up? Stop in and see our selection of formal wear for Pledge formals. We have various styles to choose from with many varied combinations in each style. Give us ten days notice and see how we can make your tux difranks with the greatest in sports history. Penn State could have done three things: quit, panic or win. The Lions won.

All Kansas had to do was run out the clock, not a very difficult assignment with 2:04 left and first and 10. But Lincoln Lippincott stopped the first Kansas play for no gain. Then defensive tackle Mike Reid made two key stops, throwing Kansas quarterback Bobby Douglass for losses of six and seven yards.

And after Neal Smith had blocked the ensuing punt and Penn State took over at midfield. Mike Reid went back to the bench, turned his back on the field and sat on the Penn State bench praying, his eyes

Finally with 15 seconds left, after Chuck Burkhart's 47-yard pass to Bob Campbell and Burkhart's three-yard touchdown run, Penn State had two chances at the winning points. Campbell, following the illegal procedure penalty against Kansas on the first try for the extra points, scored on a run for the

There had been no panic in a confusing, taut situation. Penn State reacted in classic fashion. The Baltimore Colts could not have reacted more professionally. But these were college kids, kids who spoke all week in terms of having watched bowl games when they were younger and dreaming of the timebut never expecting it—when they would be playing on national television on New Year's Day.

When it was over Wednesday night, Paterno suspended curfew and all training rules. But there was no wild celebration.

Paterno was somewhat surprised He expected more of a celebration. The next day he supplied an answer. "I think many of them wanted to be alone to savor the true feeling of the moment," he said, "The kids seemed more interested in quiet reflection and absorbing the true meaning of their accomplishment

There is a good chance Penn State will have another perfect season in 1969. But even if it does, it is doubtful if the 1968 season will ever be duplicated. There was just the right blend of everything on this team pride, talent, emotion, intelligence. And not once was perspective lost-by players, coaches or athletic departments officials. It was a team playing a game and for once really showing what function games—when in the hands of the right people—can have in an intelligent society.

oans up to $3500.

Something new has been added to the local scene! It's Beneficial's new office right here in town—modern, comfortable, convenient—the latest addition to the world's largest system of affiliated finance offices—ready to give you Beneficial's own special kind of cash loan service—Beneficial's Big O K, service!

You are corduilly invited to come in and get acquainted.

Meet the Manager and his Staff, You'll find that Beneficial is a good neighbor, a good citizen, and a good place to get

Boneficial's famous Big OK. for cash, How much can you use right now? We're here to serve you . . . today!

Call 238-1241 Daytime; 238-1757 Evenings FREE PARKING at Rear of Store while you shop • 229 S. ALLEN ST. • 238-1241

ferent from the ordinary.

SURE

OPEN TO 9:00 P.M. TONIGHT

LORENZO'S

LORENZO'S

Will Soon Be Known For Its PIZZA & ITALIAN SANDWICHES

LORENZO'S

Also Has Opened Its

Rome Room For Dining LORENZO'S 129 S. ALLEN ST. (Rear)

SPRING WEEK in PUERTO RICO $185.00*

Enjoy your Spring vacation. Shrug off tensions under the luxurious rays of tropical Old San Juan.

6 Days - 5 Nights

Condado Beach Hotel Round-trip Air Fare Tranfers

March 20 Phila. - San Juan San Juan - Phila. March 25

116 W. College Ave. State College, Pa.

$25 Deposit due February 1 Balance February 15

For Results --- Use Collegian Classifieds

116 E. COLLEGE AVE. SHOP WHITE CROSS IN STATE . * FRE

STORE HOURS: Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

SALE ENDS SAT'D HEALTH & BEAUTY AIDS JAN. 18

HEALTH+CROSS-I LB. SIZE STYLING GEL

Everyday Discount For HEALTH+CROSS-1000 1/4 Gr.

SACCHARIN

Everyday Comparable National Brand Mfg. List For 2 Bottles $1.18

HEALTH+CROSS-100's

MULTIPLE VITAMINS

m For

🚣 Far

Formula Comp. to Natl. Brand Mfg, List For 2 Bottles $4.98

HEALTH+CROSS-90's

Formula Comp. to Nati. Brand Mfg. List For 2 Bottles $15.78

Formula Comp. to Natl. Brand Mfg. List For 2 Bottles $6.58

A For O

HEALTH+CROSS-100 TABLET

BUFFERED ASPIRIN

Comparable National Brand Mfg. List 2 Bottles For $2.98

HEALTH+CROSS-50 cc.

POLY-VITAMINS Discount Discount

For 🗸

Formula Comp. to Natl. Brand

Mfg. List For 2 Bottles $7.78

HEALTH+CROSS-100 chewable

$7 25

65

Formula Comp. to Natl. Brand

Mfg. List For 2 Bottles $5.88

HEALTH +CROSS-60 chowable CHILD VITAMINS WITH

Everyday Price

$1.47 ea.

Everyday

Discount

Discount

Everyday

Price

$1.99 EA.

$3.95 ea. For

$1.64 ea. For

CHARACTERS FIRST QUALITY PARE SEAMLESS MESSE 180%, NYLOR

HEALTH+CROSS-5's STAINLESS BLADES

For 🐿

Comparable National Brand

Mfg. List For 2 Pkgs, $2.98

HEALTH+CROSS-12 CAPSULES

HEALTH-TAC

Discount

Comparable National Brand Mfg. List for 2 Packs $1.58

HEALTH + CROSS 100's VI-VIMS

HEALTH+CROSS-7 OUNCE TAKE DEODORANI

Everyday Comparable National Brand Mfg. List 2 Cans $2.98

HEALTH+CROSS-1 PT. SI在

MOUTHWASH

Everyday Discount

Comparable National Brand Mfg. List 2 Bottles $2.00

HEALTH+CROSS-100 Mg.

ASCORBIC ACID Everyday Discount Price

HEALTH+CROSS-100 Multiple

VITAMINS with IRON Everyday

For $1.64 ea: Formula Comp. to Natl. Brand .Mfg. List For 2 Bottles $6.58

HEALTH+CROSS-250's ASPIRIN TABLETS

Everyday Discount 59ć ea. Comparable National Brand Mfg. List For 2 Bottles $1.96

HEALTH+CROSS-Medium or Hard TOOTH BRUSHES

Everyday Discount Comparable National Brand Mfg. List 2 Brushes $1.38

HEALTH+CROSS-100's

Discount $2.98 ea.

Comparable National Brand Mfg. List for 2 Bottles $11.90

HEALTH+CROSS-12 OZ. MAYGEL

Everyday Discount Comparable National Brand Mfg. List 2 Bottles $2.98

HEALTH+CROSS-50 cc. TRI-VITAMINS

Discount $1.62 ea. Formula Comp. to Natl. Brand Mfg. List 2 Bottles For $6.48

CREST 6¾ OUNCE TOOTH PASTE MFG. LIST $1.05

ORA FIX 2¾ oz. Denture ADHESIVE MFG. LIST $1.09

OUR PRICE

VO-5 10 OUNCE HAIR SPRAY MFG. LIST $1.50

Any Advertised Item Qc This Page

OUR RAINCHECK POLICY: for Your Convenience A Rain Check can Be Obtained From Store Manager Should We Inadvertently "Run Out" of $109

SUCRETS LOZENGES

24 COUNT 49¢ MFG. LIST 59¢ OUR PRICE

55 COUNT MEG. LIST OUR PRICE

VANQUISH TABLETS

EVERYDAY DISCOUNT PRICE 39¢ PAIR

BUY 2 PAIR FOR 78¢ AND GET A

THIRD PAIR FOR A PENNY!!!

60 COUNT MFG. LIST 986 OUR PRICE 100 COUNT

MFG. LIST $ 19 $1.49 OUR PRICE

DR. SCHOLL 7 OUNCE

WE RESERVE THE RIGHT

TO LIMIT QUANTITIES

FOOT POWDER MFG. LIST 90¢

PRICE

8 DERTAL CUSHIONS MFG. LIST 69¢

EZO

13 OUNCE HAIR SPRAY MFG. LIST $1.59

PRICE O

STYLE

PRICE

AYDS DIETETIC PLAN CANDY

1 LB. 10 OZ. SIZE $ 69 MFG. LIST $3.25 OUR PRICE

OUR

PRICE

SCHICK DOUBLE EDGE BLADES

10 BLADES MFG. LIST $1.59 OUR PRICE

PURSETTES TAMPONS by Campana

40 TAMPONS $ 1 39 OUR PRICE

PREPARATION H

PRICE

FAULTLESS FEMININE SYRINGE

MODEL 233 MFG. LIST $2.79 OUR PRICE

FILM PRINTING AT DISCOUNT PRICES

BLACK & WHITE JUMBO PRINTS From 120-126-127-620-828

COMPARE AND SAVE KODACOLOR JUMBO PRINTS From 120-126-127-620-828

MFG. LIST 656 OUR PRICE MFG. LIST $2.49

OUR

PRICE

30 TABLETS 200 TABLETS 199

1 OZ. OINTMENT MFG. LIST $ 105 OUR PRICE 12 SUPPOSITORIES

MFG. LIST OUR PRICE

DRISTAN

50 TABLETS MFG. LIST $ 169 OUR PRICE

100 TABLETS MFG. LIST $ 7 59 OUR PRICE

116 EAST COLLEGE AVENUE •

Springfield Next For Lion Matmen

By DAN DONOVAN

By DAN DONOVAN

Collegian Sports Writer
How far can a team go with a young group of good athletes? That's the question the Penn State v arsity wrestling team will try to answer in the coming season.

Head coach Bill Koll calls this year's edition of Penn State grapplers, "a good bunch of young boys," but adds, "They lack meet experience." Playing in the shadows of State's four Eastern champions who graduated last June limited the action that the juniors on the team have seen in dual meets.

Kcll, however, is very confident concerning the squad that he has put together.

confident concerning the squad that he has put together. "They will be good. We have the men to put together a very fine team. Just how good will depend on how quickly they progress as they gain experience." Koll said.

Depth is a problem confronting the Lions. "At present we have a good starting lineup, but when injuries come and this flu bug strikes, we will have to look to sophomores to fill the gaps," Koll said.

Flu already has struck one of the Lion wrestlers. Captain of the Lion wrestlers. Captain Bob Funk is currently suffering from the epidemic, although his condition is not considered serious enough to

Surprise Opener
The young State performers have already had one chance to gain experience. Against the always-tough Army wrestlers, the underdog Lions battled to always-tough Army wrestlers, the underdog Lions battled to a 16-16 tie last Dec. 7.

Three thousand fans saw a spectacular effort put out by Tom Hartzfeld in the heavyweight class. Hartzfeld, a sophomore who usually wrestles in the 177 class, was pressed into action against one of the best heavyweights in the East, Paul Raglin, with the match tied at 14-14.

"Hartzfeld simply outfought Raglin," says Koll. "He was outweighed and Raglin is an experienced senior. Hartzfeld gave us the tie."

The only senior starting for the Lions is Captain Funk in the 177-lb class. Funk outclassed his Cadet opponent, John Dinger, and won, 8-0. Dinger was a place-winner in last year's Eastern championships. Koll called Funk's showing "the best match he's ever wrestled."

A strong performance was recorded by Dang Balum in match he's ever wrestled."

A strong performance was recorded by Dana Balum in the 130-lb class. Balum, only a sophomore, piled up two takedowns, an escape, and time advantage, to whip Army's Mark Mullady, 7-1.

Dick Keefe, a junior transfer student, downed Cadet Jim Byrnes, 8-1, in the 137-lb. class. Another sophomore who pulled a convincing win was Don Stone. The 145-lb. wrestler was taken down early in his match but rallied to defeat Tom Schafer, 12-2. Stone had a field day in the final period to chalk up his winning margin.

Tough Tie A tie resulted in the 191-lb. clash as John High of State fought Joe Ferraro to a standstill. High and Ferraro traded an escape and a penalty in the 3-3 match.

The most disappointing loss for the Lions came in the 152-lb. division, as heralded sophomore Clyde Frantz was upset by Mark Hoffman, 2-6.

Frantz started well, scoring a first period takedown, but a third period miscue, cost him

BILL KOLL ... eyes 1st win

the match. The sophomore tried to roll but the alert Hoffman caught him in the middle of it. The Cadet wrestler added a predicament to clinch the match over the young State wrestler.

In commenting on the loss by Frantz, Coach Koll said, by Frantz, Coach Aon Sam, "Every good wrestler has such unbeatable. It just happened to happen to Frantz on his first match."

Jim Crowther was edged in the meet by Army's Greg Smith. Crowther led 3-1 with one period remaining in the 167-lb. match, but Smith scored an escape and a takedown to upset him.

A takedown in the last 10

A takedown in the last 10 seconds by Scott Patten of Army defeated State's 123-th wrestler, Bruce Balmat. This move clinched an 8-4 win for Petter.

Patten.
Charlie Butler found the going rough in his 160-lb. bout.
Butler was beaten by Army's Mike Nardotti 6-0, as Nardotti scored with a takedown, reversal and time advantage.

reversal and time advantage.

Eyes Maroons

The Lion squad is currently preparing for its next match at tough Springfield Saturday. Koll feels his players are in fine shape after the long layoff and is confident that they will perform wellagainst Springfield.

Koll says his team is in "good" shape, not "excellent" shape for this coming competition. "We want to be peaked later on when we meet some of our stronger opponents and of course, for the championships." Koll said.

The Lions figure to be

The Lions figure to be considerably stronger for this meet than for the Army match. Bob Robel, a true match. Bob Robel, a true heavyweight, will probably be at the heavyweight position for State. State.

Bob Abraham, a senior, will try to replace Butler at 160-lbs. Starting at 118-lbs. will be Harry Weinhofer for the Lions, At 123-lbs. will be either Balmat either Balmat

BOB FUNK . . . wins opener

THE COPPER KITCHEN

is only a few steps away

State College's Only

Authentic Italian Restaurant

Owned and Operated by PETER NASTE, The Chef, himself

We Specialize In Such Delights As:

- Savory Spagnetti Dinners with Nine Different Sauces
- Chicken Cacciotori
- Deep Fried Fantail Shrimp
- Baked Manicotti
- Ravioli
- Baked Lasagna
- Gnocchi

For Lunches or Snacks Peter suggests choosing from a list of Sandwiches served on hot, buttered, garlic rolls and a variety of your favorite pizza.

> Hours: Mon.-Thur. 11:30 A.M. to 8 P.M. Friday 11:30 A.M. to 12:30 A.M. Saturday 10:00 A.M. to 12:30 A.M. Sunday 9:30 A.M. to 8 P.M.

COPPER KITCHEN

114 S. Garner St.

State College

Snow and Solid Sounds in the Southland

MIAMI'S VERSION of a snowy night shields the pretty Florida space girl (left) as she waves to onlookers during the annual Orange Bowl parade. The nighttime extravaganza was led off, at least for the television viewers, by Penn State's Blue Band (right), which also performed at halftime of the next night's bowl game. That white stuff looked authentic, but it was hard to convince these 600,000 viewers who lined the Florida city streets and enjoyed the 75-degree temperatures.

"I can't think of any other job where a guy my age could find himself working with the board of directors of a ten million dollar company," says Peter Anderson.

Peter joined IBM after he earned his B.A. in Economics in 1964. As a Marketing Representative, he's involved in the planning, selling and installation of IBM data processing systems. "I look at myself more as a consultant or educator than as a salesman," says Peter.

Work with company presidents

"It's not unusual for me to answer the phone and find myself talking to a company president." (The annual sales of Peter's customers range from one half million to 10 million dollars.) "These men are looking for solutions to problems - not a sales pitch," says Peter. "For instance, one manufacturer's inventory was so uncontrolled he never knew when he could promise delivery. We worked out a system that tells him what stock items he needs, when he needs them and the date he

Broad experience

"I cover a lot of different businesses-manufacturers, distributors, chemical processors, real estate brokers, linen suppliers-you name it.

"And the freedom really pays off. You're given a quota and a territory. How you manage it is pretty much up to you." Already Peter has netted 24 new accounts and seen 18 new systems installed. He has just been promoted to a new staff position.

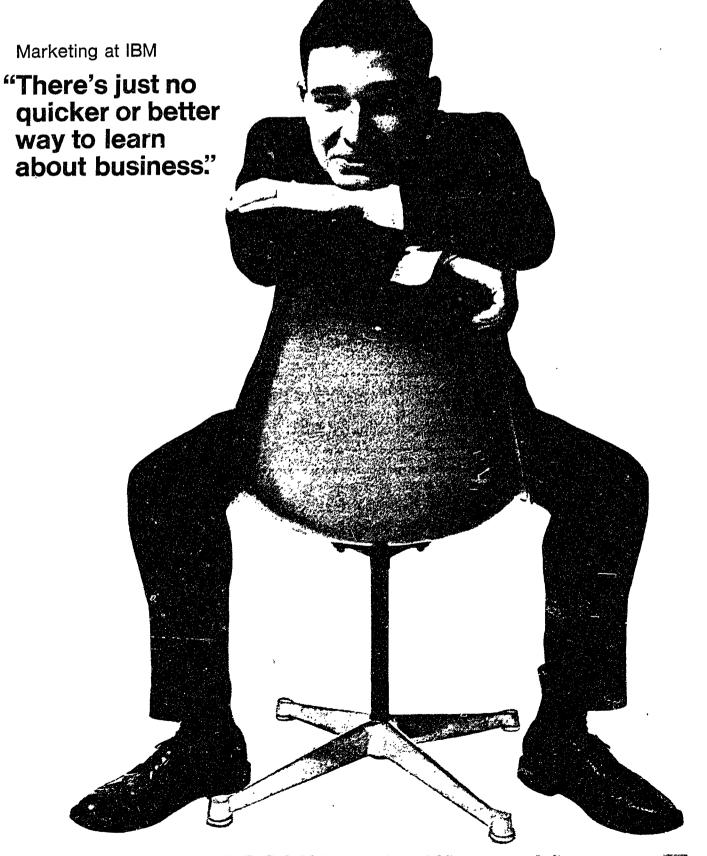

You'll find many IBM Marketing and Sales Representatives who could tell you of similar experiences. And they have many kinds of college backgrounds: business, engineering, liberal arts, science. They not only sell data processing equipment as Peter does, but also IBM office products and information records systems. Many of the more technically inclined are data processing Systems Engineers.

Check with your placement office

If you're interested in marketing at IBM, ask your placement office for more information. Or send a resume or letter to Irv Pfeiffer, IBM Corp., Dept. C, 100 So. Wacker Dr., Chicago, III, 60606. We'd like to hear from you even if you're headed for graduate school or military service.

An Equal Opportunity Employer

For Results — Use Collegian Classifieds

Cagers Scare LaSalle, Upset Niagara

Collegian Sports Writer
Many teams have tried to run with La Salle over the last two years — pass for pass, fast break for fast break. And basketball's Boot Hill has claimed most of them.

There is enough evidence available now to suggest that you don't engage the Explorers in a foot race unless (1) you are crazy (you have a passion for madly flashing scoreboard lights), or (2) you think your team is faster then La Salle's (which may quilify you for (1), also).

John Bach, Penn State's first year coach, likes madly flashing scoreboard lights but admits he derives fullest enjoyment when they are registering on his side of the board. He also has a big, slow team that couldn't outrun a fast-breaking La Salle team with a truckload of adrenalin.

Slows It Down So Bach instructed his men to use a deliberate offense against the Explorers in the first round of the Quaker City Tournament in Philadelphia. "It was our only chance to win" he confessed. "We had to slow it down to keep them from running. I figured that if we could keep the score in the 50's, we could wil."

For 25 tense minutes, the Lions played Bach's plan to the letter. They crashed the defensive boards, depriving the Explorers of their high-gear game, and slowed the tempo considerably on offense. But, alas, the Lions' ballhandling broke down for a few crucial minutes in the second half, and LaSalle sped happily up and down the floor with pilfered passes and opened up a lead that reached 70-55 by the final buzzer.

"We were guilty of some turnovers," Bach said as his players drank Cokes in the quiet solitude of the losers' locker room. "That definitely hurt us. But you have to give LaSalle a lot of credit. They stepped up the tempo of the game when they had to."

The Explorers, though, played the first half entirely on the Lions' termst Their vaunted running game never materialized, and they appeared sluggish and sloppy, perhaps frustrated with Penn State's leisurely pace. When they departed at halftime with a shaky 25-24 lead, coach Tom Gola, the former La Salle All-American and NBA great, grabbed his clipboard and followed them, his face grim as though he had run through a tough half with the Boston Celtics.

Simple Solution

"What did L tell them at halftime?" Gola said "I

Simple Solution
"What did I tell them at halftime?" Gola said. "I told them they had better start running. And fast."
The first five minutes of the second half were as lackluster as the first 20. Then, with LaSalle leading, 28-27, All-America candidate Larry Cannon went on a 16-second rampage that turned the game around.

Penn 'State was moving the ball methodically in its frontcourt, hypnotized by the passive LaSalle defense. Suddenly Cannon stepped in front of Mike Egleston, stole the pass headed his way, and drove the length of the court for a layup. Seconds later the muscular 6-5 forward pillered another at midcourt and passed off to Roland Taylor, who found 6-3 guard Bernie Williams standing in splendid solitude under the basket. Thirty seconds later. Cannon swished a baseline jump shot, and the lead had grown to 34-27.

Camon swished a baseline jump shot, and the lead had grown to 34-27.

But LaSalle stil couldn't break the game open. Bill Young, the Lions' 6-6, 220-pound forward, threw in two jumpers, and with help from 6-8 heavyweight Bill Stansfield, dominated the boards. But as mysteriously as they had recomposed themselves and had gotten back into the game, the Lions fell apart again and the LaSalle run and shoot offense took over.

Two Run Wild

Two Run Wild

With the Lions trailing by only 41-37, Taylor and 6-7 sophomore Ken Durrett recled off 11 straight points and put the game out of Penn State's reach with six minutes remaining.

"It was hard to attal remaining.

"It was hard to stick with the slowdown," Bach said.
"It becomes very frustrating and takes quite a bit of patience to stay with it for an entire game."

Respectable shooting on the part of the Lions, though, could have subdued LaSalle in the first 20 m in u tes of the game. Penn State played the deliberate, unexciting type of game which Bach had outlined beforehand, choking off the fast breaks which are LaSalle's trademark. But with a 19 per cent shooting average from the floor, the best the Lions could do was a 25-24 deficit at halftime.

Penn State did gain a measure of satisfaction in the following afternoon's consolation round, walloping Calvin Murphy, 77-35. The rest of the Niagara team added 39 points to make it a 77-74 cliffhranger.

Opens Early

Murphy, employing a little psychological warfare on 6-4
Lion sophomore Bruce Mello, who had won the dubious privilege of guarding him, gained control of the opening tap and very matter-of-factly spun a 25-footer through the nets. Eighteen seconds later he hit from 20 feet, and it was 4-0, Niagara. A pale-looking Bruce Mello followed at his heels. and it was 4-b, Magara. A pate-tooking brace Meno followed at his heels.
"I thought 'My God, what's going to happen' "? Mello

"I thought 'My God, what's going to happen' "? Mella said.

What happened was that Murphy settled down to a mere spectacular pace, 'and Penn State, trailing by 21-18 with 10 minutes to play in the second half, rallied for a 37-37 tie at intermission. The second half was just as close, but Penn State eeked out the 77-74 upset.

"We tried to make Murphy go to his left," Mello said, 'and if we could, to keep him away from the hall. But he's just a great ballplayer. It was quite an experience for me."

Murphy finished with 35 points, an awesome performance, yet three points under his season's scoring average. Willie Bryant, a 6-3 sophomore, had 25 points and 10 rebounds for the Lions, who celebrated their biggest upset since they stunned Temple in Rec Hall last year, 81-68.

The Lions, though, far from being buoyed by the win, were flat in the tripleheader windup of the tournament, in which they played De Paul for fifth place. "Every time we seem to have a good ball game, we come back and start off poorly the next one," moaned Bach.

Penn State had good shots, many of them at point-blank range, but the rim was seemingly too narrow for the basketball. The Lions had another bad shooting night and absorbed their fifth defeat in eight starts. 83-63.

In the championship game, South Carolina upset LaSalle, 72-69, employing successfully the deliberate game which Penn State had used three days earlier. State finished in sixth place.

IMMEDIATE GCGUPANCY The NEWEST High Rise Apartment HARBOUR TOWERS 710 S. ATHERTON ST., STATE COLLEGE, PA.

Furnished Efficiencies Furnished or unfurnished one bedroom apts. 2 Elevators All Utilities incl.

Call Alex Gregory Associates, Inc. SUITE 102 HOLIDAY INN 238-5081

1969 Inter-College Council Board Course Evaluation Guide

On Sale at HUB ICCB Course Guide

Buy it now On Sale at HUB

Collegian Photos by William Epsteln ROLLING PAST LaSalle defender Roland Taylor is State's high scorer, junior Tom Daley. The Lions were downed by the nationally ranked Explorers but a slowdown kept them in the game for three quarters. State finished sixth in the Quaker City tournament.

Senator is Saved By State's Victory

The Nittany Lion victory saved some money for Sen The Nittany Lion victor, Hugh Scott.

Hugh Scott.

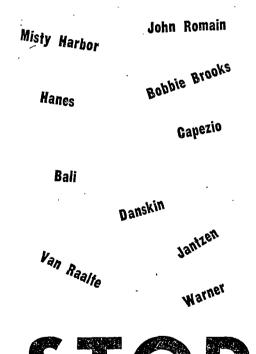

Before the game, the Pennsylvania Republican agreed to buy oranges for the entire staff of Sen. James Pearson (R-Kan.) if Kansas defeated Penn State.

Sandy Padwe, sports columnist for the Philadelphia Inquirer and former sports editor for The Daily Collegian, reported an incident which took place the day Penn State accepted the Orange Bowl bid.

"A telephone hookup between Miami, University Park and Kansas City (where the Kansas party had been head-quartered) was in use." Padwe wrote.

"John Zook, the All-American defensive end and a Kansas captain, had accompanied Rodgers (Kansas crach) to Kansas City. Rodgers thought the Penn State and Miami people would like to know this, and he told them of Zook's presence.

"Then he inquired if Paterno had brought any of his players with him. University President Eric A. Walker grabbed the phone before Paterno could answer.
"'Our students,' he said good naturedly, 'go to class.'"
"Silence for a moment. Then the voice of Pepper Rodgers: 'It's all right in John's case. He's been in school six years'"

at Town & Campus for all THE TOP NAMES FOR THE COMPLETE WARDROBE

To outfit the women completely. Town and Campus is a must stop. We specialize in the complete wardrobe . . everything from lingerie to Bermudas, from sleepwear to hosiery, from sweaters to coats.

Remember, there is no need to go from store to store when everything can be found at Town & Campus.

> BACK TO SCHOOL SPECIALS ON ALL 20% off SWEATERS

Town & Campus

A Women's World of Fashion State College

COLLEGIAN ADS

In 52-50 Overtime Thriller

Lions Slip Past Hoyas

The tattersall shirt, the pants, the blue tie were put on quickly. A wet, extra-large uniform and a pair of white sneakers were hung in an open locker. And then Bill Stansfield, slipping on a blue sports coat, whisked out of the locker room, past Tom Daley and past Willie Bryant, and into the five degree University Park air.

It had been homecoming for Bill Stransfield, a 52-60 overtime win a gainst Georgetown, After eight tough opening road games—from Kent, Ohio to Buffalo, N.Y. to the Spectrum in Philadelphia—Stansfield was back in Rec Hall, back before his classmates and their laughter. Nothing much had changed.

changed.

Stansfield has grown used to it — at least there is no outward display of emotion on his face as he laps the 90-foot court. When you are 6-8 and 230 pounds, he has learned painfully, and you miss a tapin of fumble a pass which should have been an assist and two points, you don't need rabbit ears to pick up the suggestions offered by the bench jockeys in the stands.

Can't Listen

bench jockeys in the stands.

Can't Listen

"I know I'm not a good shooter," Stansfield admitted after a 4-for-13 shooting night had dipped his season's shooting percentage to 39.2.

"But when I'm going bad, I can't listen to the crowd. I have to keep shooting. If there's an opening, I have to take the shot."

Which is exactly what Stansfield did against the Hoyas and it made him the hero, as he almost single-handedly presented Penn State with its fourth victory in nine games.

games.
For 30 minutes it had been a personal holocaust of missed jump shots, tap-ins that bounced around the orange rim and fell out, and fumbled passes. Then, in the last 10 minutes of the game — and in the five-minute overtime period — it was all Stansfield, doing everything All-American centers do to earn cover-boy status with national magazines magazines.

With the Lions faltering badly, 43-36, and Georgetown threatening to make a laugher of the whole affair midway through the second half. Stansfield connected on a short jumper and a book shot to Stansfield connected on a short tumper and a hook shot to bring the Lions to within three. A Stansfield foul shot and two tap-ins, the last at 2:15, cut the deficit to 48-47, and sophomore guard Bruce Mello tied it 35 seconds later after being fouled by the Hoyas' Jim Supple on a rebound.

Jim Supple on a rebound.

Pass Sets Stage
That set the stage for the most dramatic 90 seconds of the season. Rattled by a full-court press, sophomore Dick Zeitler gunned a pass out of bounds, giving the Lions possession. Penn State then went into a passing exhibition which, though it was nothing the Harlem Globetrotters would brag about, was effective until the five-second standoff rule was invoked with 15 seconds remaining.

Georgetown gained control after the jump at center court and with three seconds left worked the ball in to Charlie Adrion, the 6-6 junior center who averages 25 points a

Αt your newsstand NOW

Part one of the authorized Hemingway biography

PLUS:

- For Local Control in the Schools
- What Went Wrong in Vietnam?
- · Israel and the Arabs laid the ball in the basket. The "back-door play" had won its second game this season. game. Adrion went up for a jumper from the foul line — a shot he had been making Knew It Then hit a layup in overtime to give State a 52-50 win. Tom Daley is in the background.

A GREAT NEW find for Lion basketball fans is sophomore Bruce Mellow, shown here driving against Georgetown defenders Mike Laska (35) and Dick Zeitler. Mellow

"When the game went into overtime," Daley said, "there was no way we could lose. I just knew we were going to pull it out."

a snot ne had been making the entire scason — and was blocked by Stansfield. The scoreboard timer lit up for a five minute overtime period.

Daley gained control of the tap from Stansfield and again the Lions went into a slowdown. Finally, Stansfield was fouled by Ed McNama a and converted both shots, but Supple knotted the score again with a 15-foot jumper from the corner.

Penn State controlled the ball for nearly two minutes after dribbling through a full-court Georgetown press. Then the opening it had been waiting for appeared, With Stansfield and 6-6 Bill Young at the posts, Mello slipped unguarded to pull it out."

Penn State coach John Bach, who went through some trying moments in the first 30 minutes of play, explained the Lions' winning strategy. "We went into a passing game," he said, "because I wanted the game to be decided by us. We're not going to run with teams that can outshoot and outmaneuver us."

No one outmaneuvered Bill

No one outmaneuvered Bill Stansfield in the last 15 minutes. Homecoming h ad been some catealls, some booing, some laughing...and pass from Tom Daley, and some winning.

18-54 16-21 47 11 52 GEORGETOWN (50) McNamar Laska Adrion Supple Favorite Pyles Mercier Weber McGarity Team

Totals 22-57 6-11 34 17 50 Hatflime Score: Georgetown 34-26 Regulation Time: 48-48

THE DAILY COLLEGIAN ADVERTISING POLICY

CLASSIFIED AD DEADLINE 10:30 A.M. Day Before Publication

Mello slipped unguarded through the lane, received a the entire season — and was blocked by Stansfield. The

LOCAL AD DEADLINE 4:00 P.M. 2 Days Before Publication | DISPLAY CLASSIFIED DEADLINE 4:00 P.M. 2 Days Before Publication

SWEATER SALE 331/3 OFF

P. S. THERE ARE STILL SOME LADIES DRESSES & SUITS AT 50% REDUCTION!

222 W. Hamilton Drive (Next to the Pa. State Store) Hours Daily 10 'til 9; Sat. 10 'til 6

Student Opinion of 250 Courses

Great For Spring & Fall Terms Pre-registration & drop add

ORANGE BOWL here Bob Campbell roams wide to the left against the Jayhawks, picking up a few of the 101 yards he gained rushing. Kansas defenders Dave Morgan (31) and Bill Hunt move to stop the shifty halfback-but such moves were markedly unsuccessful all night, especially in the thrilling ending.

NCAA Seeks To Curb Rise in Athletic Costs

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The faculty representatives to coaching staffs to seven or atthletic director of Oregon return to one-platoon football, eight men."

Los ANGELES (AP)—The faculty representatives to coaching staffs to seven or eight men."

Edwin Cady, faculty representative of Indiana

State University warned yesterday that college sports programs face bankruptcy if costs continue at the present accelerated pace. "Everybody is trying to keep up with the Joneses." James Barratt told a meeting of National Collegiate Athletic Association representatives studying the college financial dilemma. 'If the current trend is at the current trend is allowed to continue, some colleges won't be able to make it and a lot of coaches will be out selling real estate and insurance."

Insurance."

Barratt addressed a roundtable meeting of university administrators and athletic directors.

Faced with skyrocketing costs, college heads are discussing means of cutting costs, including reduction of grants-in-aid, elimination of spring practice and return to limited substitution— or the so-called one-platoon system.

substitution — of the so-called one-platoon system. The proposed change in college rules, eliminating the current free substitution which permits use of full units on offense and defense, has offense and defense, has created the greatest controversy.

Edwin Cady, faculty representative of Indiana University, warned that college athletic departments were no longer self-sufficient but were relying heavily on institutional support.

Ernest McCoy of Penn State University and Harold Lahar of Colgate University both suggested a limit on scholarships.

1952 and 1965.

College coaches are almost unanimously opposed to the return of limited substitution and other influential college spokesmen insist such a move would return the game to the dark ages and turn the spectator appeal over to the spectator appeal over to the pros.

Barratt said the cost of equipment has risen 34 percent and grants-in-aid 35 percent over the last four years. The cost of recruiting, he added, is up 150 per cent.

He added that whereas in 1962 all of the teams in the Pacific-8 Conference were operating on budgets of a million dollars, today all of them are more than a million dollars and many are nearing $2 million.

S2 milion.
'D1 scarding two-platoon football is not the answer," he said. "We must save two-platoon football."

platoon football.
"I would make several recommendations for sacrifice: one, put a national limit of 90 on 'athletic scholarships: two, limit grantsoffense and defense, has in-aid to room and update, not created the greatest controversy.

There is a strong move among athletic directors and colleges limit their football in-aid to room and board, not paying for books and

Events of '68

Collegian Sports Writer

Remember when...

The Lions were fighting to get into the top 10 in football post-season ratings? A basketball victory was not as rare as a Chinese vase from the Ming Dynasty? Frank Spaziani was hurling basebalis as well as opposing quarterbacks? Remember? Let us now return to those thrilling days of yesteryear, 1968...

January

Monday morning quarterbacking rages wild following Joe Paterno's gambling fourth-down decision deep in his own territory that eventually led to a tie in the Gator Bowl.

Greg Weiss and Bob Emery lead the gymnasts in a 272.20 to 270.55 victory over the Scandinavian All-Stars.

John Egli announced his retirement as mentor of the basketball team, effective at season's end.

Ron Williams toys with the Lions and leads West Virginia to two straight wins over the cagers.

cagers.
Penn State wrestlers upset Temple in grudge return match.

Penn State donates Rich Buzin to the Giants and Bill Lenkaitis to the Chargers in football draft. FEBRUARY

Owls of Temple migrate home after stunning upset to Jeff Persson and Co. at Rec. Hall, 81-68. Persson hits 1,000th career point in loss to Syracuse.

Gym team handles Temple to maintain undefeated slate.

PSU wrostlers in "Match

undefeated slate.
Navy conquers PSU wrestlers in "Match of the Year", 17-14.
John Bach decides to enter pit as '68-'69 basketball coach.
Lions and John Egli close out home season and coaching career before disappointing crowd of 1,400 at Rec Hall.

of 1,400 at Rec Hall.

Lions upset by Lehigh wrestlers 22-12, but Rich Lorenzo maintains perfect slate.

MARCH

Bob Emery breaks on the high bar and Penn State loses EIGL championship to

Jeff Persson closes out spectacular career in disappointment as missed layup costs him fourth place on all-time Lion scoring list in final loss to Rutgers.

in final loss to Rutgers.

Penn State finished 12th in NCAA wrestling championships at Rec Hall. Lorenzo finished fourth at 191 pounds.

APRIL

Hard luck backfield potential Roger Grimes received daylight with draft notice from Dallas towhow:

Cowboys.
Bill (Whazizname) Micsky hurls no-hitter

Bill (Whazizianic)
over Gettysburg.
Chuck Burkhart's named replacement for Tom Sherman at spring football drills.

MAY

There for 26 walks as

MAY
Pitching staffs combine for 26 walks as Temple wallops Penn State, 9-3.
State's 440 relay team sets Beaver Stadium record as thinclads record first dual meet rictory of the season over Syracuse.

Tough defense leads the Blues to 39-19 romp n annual Blue-White game. Chuck Burkhart in annual Blue-White game.

hits 19 of 33 passes.
John Kulka, Mike Reid and Steve Smear named tri-captains for '68 grid season.
SEPTEMBER

named tri-captains for '68 grid season.

SEPTEMBER

Charley Pittman rushes Penn State past outclassed Navy. 31-6 Defense limits Middies to seven net yards rushing.

Penn State defeats Kansas State, 25-9 in costly win. Bob Campbell injures shoulder and many fear no return. Campbell replies. "Till be back."

State now ranked third in football polls.

OCTOBER

Charley Wilson, subbing for the injured Bob Campbell, sparks comeback rally in win over West Virginia, 31-20. Denny Onkotz continues his all-American bid with two interceptions. one for a touchdown.

Kudos go to Tom Cherry following his 76-yard run with a Chuck Burkhart pass to ice the UCLA game for the Nittany cleven, 21-6. Ted Kwalick had his first log day and was tabbed "the best tight end in a decade" by Bruin coach Tommy Prothro, Jack Ham sets up score with blocked punt.

The frosh pull off a 49-7 crusher over the West Virginia underclassmen. Enter a shifty-footed, swivel-hipped halfback named Lydell Mitchell, who rushed for over 150 yards

State drops to fourth in polls behind a

Lydell Mitchell, who rushed for over 150 yards
State drops to fourth in polls behind a surging Kansas eleven
The Lions record their first shutout with a 29-0 shellacking of upset-minded Boston College. Jack Ham blocks his second punt.

NOVEMBER
Bob Campbell's return to the starting lineup and Ted Kwalick's 53-yard sprint with an onside kick were enough to knock off Army for the first time in memory since the invention of moleskin pants, 28-24.

Nittany Lions overcome 7-0 deficit and return to pluck the plumes of "mad stork" Ted Hendricks and his Miami Hurricanes.

"Superliam" blocks his third punt in four games to set up score.

Hendricks and his Mhami Hurricanes.
"SuperHam" blocks his third punt in four games to set up score.

Oklahoma knocks off Kansas; State returns to third in rankings.

Everything is coming up oranges — Lions accept bowl bid to Mhami.

Steve Smear provides the antics with a lineman's dream — an interception pass — which he sprinted with to paydirt sparking a 57-13 massacre over Maryland.

Kwalick nabs five passes for 121 yards and Lions sound death knell on Pitt's Dave Hart by a 65-9 margin. Hart's next headlines are the ones announcing his resignation.

State's Harriers finish sixth in ICAA's.

DECEMBER

Bob Campbell provides spectacular finish to spectacular season and injury-iddled career by rushing for 239 yards against Syracuse and leading Penn State to its first undefeated season since 1947.

An underdog PSU wtestling squad tes powerful Army in opener to climax the year's headlines.

Playtex invents the first-day tampon"

(We took the inside out to show you how different it is.)

Outside: it's softer and silky (not cardboardy). Inside: it's so extra absorbent...it even protects on your first day. Your worst day! In every lab test against the old cardboardy kind... the Playtex tampon was always more absorbent. Actually 45% more absorbent on the average than the leading regular tampon. Because it's different. Actually adjusts to you. It flowers out. Fluffs out. Designed to protect every inside inch of you. So the chance of a mishap is almost zero!

Try it fast. Why live in the past?

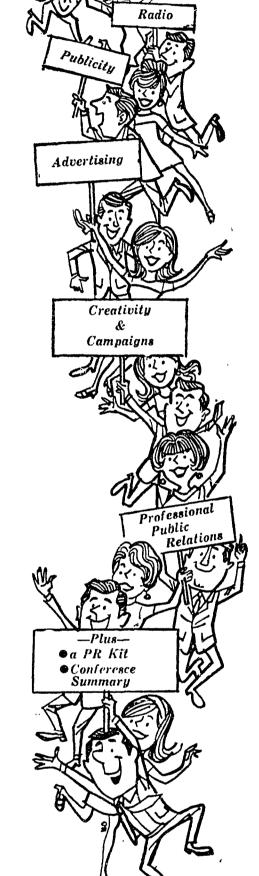

127 S. Allen St.

Organization Presidents Public Relations and Publicity Chairmen

 $\Phi_{i}(x_{i},x_{j+1},$ interesting workshops tailor made to aid your public relations program

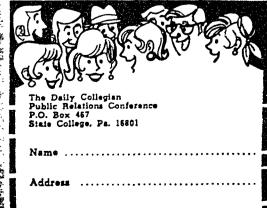

THERE'S NO CHARGE YOU'RE THE GUEST OF THE DAILY COLLEGIAN SECOND ANNUAL

Public Relations Conference

Saturday, Jan. 11, 1:00-5:00 p.m. HUB

- MAIL IN YOUR RESERVATION TODAY -

State College, Pa.

Organization

Humble Oil, Jan 23 & 24, ChE, CE, EE, EngrMech, EngrSc, ME, MetE, SanE, MS in Fuel Tech, PhD in Chem

International Harvester, Jan 23 & 24

*Metropolitan Edison, Jan 23, Accts, ChE, CE, EE, IE, ME

Sock it

in the right pocket

aŧ

Armenara Lanes

Billiards

75c an hour

Monday through Friday

Got the clue

Hit a cue

at

Armenara Lanes

Armenara Plaza

on Sowers Street

right across from

South Halls

AFL Closing Gap Jets' Coach Says

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — "The world won't fall in on the American Football League if we don't win."

Weeb Ewbank, coach of the New York Jets of the AFL, was talking about his team's Sunday date in the Super Bowl with the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League.

Ewbank believes his team can win if the Jets don't beat can win it the Jets don't beat themselves, but he wants it known he doesn't think this championship game between the two leagues proves anything.

workouts start today.

workouts start today.

"In order to determine the merits of the two leagues, you have to have a series of games, not just one," Ewbank said.

"Suppose we lose? Only one of 15 other teams in the NFL defeated Baltimore."

Gap Narrowing

Gap Narrowing

Ewbank said the difference between the experienced NFL and the junior AFL is narrowing because of the common draft.

"I think it has given the AFL an opportunity to get fine ball players. In the past, we only got a percentage of them.
There is no question that each year we come closer."

The Jets' coach isn't making

The Jets' coach isn't making any excuses, nor is he preaching a losing attitude. He believes his AFL champs can upset the 18½-point favored Colts at the Orange Bowl in this third annual Super Bowl game.

WRA Plans Ice Skating, Dancing Club

The Penn State Student Skating Club will hold its first meeting of the term today at 1 p.m. at the Ice Pavilion. The club is open to all full-time

The club is open to all full-time students and provides instruction for skaters of all ability levels.

The club meets at the Ice Pavilion Mondays from 4 to 5 p.m., Wednesdays and Fridays from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. and Thursdays and Thursdays and Thursdays

Fridays from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. and Tucsdays and Thursdays from 1 to 2:45 p.m.

At 7 p.m. tonight, tryouts for Senior Orchesis will be held in Room 108 White Hall. Senior Orchesis is open to all students, in all types of dancing, including modern, ballet, or jazz.

dancing, including modern, ballet, or jazz.

Practice for the Women's varsity fencing team will be held Monday, 7 to 8 p.m. and Tuesday and Thursday, 7 to 9 p.m. Anyone with questions concerning fencing should call Mrs. Alphin in White Hall.

DEAREST:

I can't wait to hear from you, so note the Zip Code in my address. And use it when you write to me! Zip Code really moves

New Cinema/

Campus Representative

Earn as liason, bringing prize - win ning Czech, American, Danish & Swed-

American, Danish & Swedish film premieres to the new audiences on your campus. We now have successful programs operating at many major schools. If you're interested in film, we're interested in film, we're interested in you. Drop us a note right away, as we will be on campus soon to talk with you. If you plan to be in New York between terms, write now and tween terms, write now and while you're here.

235 Second Avenue New York, N.Y. 10003 Phone 212-674-7460

New Line Cinema

arrange a meeting

"There is no question that they have the advantage in experience." Ewbank said. "They are an old established club. Sure, we've made tremendous strides in six years We wen't beau until experience." Ewbank said.
"They are an old established club. Sure, we've made teremendous strides in six years. We won't know until after the game if we have made enough. It's more difficult to put a team together today because of the large number of teams."

Ewbank said neither he nor his team paid any attention to to get intercepted. The team which makes the fewest of these mistakes will win. All I can say is that in the last two years we have been to the point spread.

He said he doesn't feel being the underdog has any psychological value. "I don't was feet on way or another. I don't think any pro football team pays any attention to the odds."
"What the Jets have to do," said Ewbank, "is to go out and execute. We have to be careful not to fumble, or fail to cover on a pass pattern, not to get intercepted. The team which makes the fewest of these mistakes will win. All I can say is that in the last two years we have been beaten but we haven't beaten ourselves."

as I'm concerned, it doesn't affect one way or another.

"One game doesn't indicate a thing," said Ewbank as he watched his squad go through a picture and interview session at Yankee Stadium here. The Jets were given the rest of the day off. Full-scale secret workouts start today. Differences Buried

LOS ANGELES (AP) - A peace came to the embattled Los Angeles Rams yesterday when Coach George Allen, abruptly fired the day after Christmas, was rehired by owner-president Daniel F. Reeves.

The two appeared together at a mid-afternoon news conference in a West Los Angeles hotel several hours after the club had announced that Allen was returning to the team.

The session lasted 30 minutes, during which Reeves announced that Allen's contract, which had two years left to run, remains the same and with the same salary, reportedly $40,000 a year. Allen spoke first from a prepared statement which jelled with similar sentiments voiced later by Reeves.

Basically, the owner and the coach agreed to forget their past and "personality" conflicts and strive for a closer association in the future.

Allen, who remained only a few moments, read this statement:

"From the meetings which Dan and I have had in the last few days, it is clear that we have each, unintentionally, hurt the other. These discussions have, however, been greatly beneficial in establishing communications between us and therby enabling us to view our problems with clarity and to resolve them with Returns Happy .

"I am therefore very happy to be returning as Dan's coach. Aside from my family, my sole interest for the past three years has been the Rams, and I want very much to return to my players and finish the task to which I dedicated myself. I owe this to the players and the fans who have been so loyal to me.

"Since we have resolved our differences, it is my conviction that a public airing of them would serve no useful or healthy purpose but it would, instead, harm the individuals, the players and the franchise. I have therefore asked Dan to permit me to be excused at this

Reeves, in good humor and bantering with the press termed Allen a "big man" for asking that he be reinstated. He denied, however, that the threat of a small rebellion by some of his star players, some of whom had threatened to quit football, or mounting pressure from Ram fans, influenced his decision.

"I can't be swayed by players, fans and yes, the media," said Reeves with a grin to his interviewers.

He said he began to have second doubts about the situation when the team physician, Dr. Jules Rasinski Jr., called him a week ago and said Allen had told him that he wanted to return as coach.

Cinema X

Underground

quarierback, AS ALL-AMERICANS meet, Chuck Burkhart, the Lions' hero get off a second-period pass from his own end zone. Number 82 is PSU's tight end Ted Kwalick, who shows his All-American wares to another All-American, Kansas

Night All-Star Game Slated

NEW YORK (AP — President-elect Nixon named two top deputies to Secretary of Agriculture-designate Clifford M. Hardin yesterday, and the farm policy leaders said there will be no immediate move to overhaul agriculture subsidies.

That assurance came from Hardin, from J. Phil Campbell

Jr., his new undersecretary, and from Clarence D. Palmby, assistant secretary for international affairs and commodity programs.

Nixon conferring with the three appointees in his Hotel Pierre Suite, told them: "I think its very important for all of us to be thinking in terms of how we make life in rural America more rein rural America more attractive." Background Research Planned

Hardin disclosed that he and his deputies will set out shortly after the inauguration to talk with farmers and organization leaders, seeking to determine what they consider their real

7 & 9

Nixon Names

Farm Leaders

CHICAGO (AP)—
Baseball's 1969 All-Star game will be played at night for the second successive year, the game's executive council decided yesterday at a meeting called by Commissioner rolliam D. Eckert.

The game is slated for July 22 in Washington, D.C. Last year's game was played under the lights at Houston's responsibility and authority until a new commissioner is elected," he said.

There was no discussion of candidates for the job at yesterday's session. Club owners tentatively have set a meeting for Feb. 4 in Chicago to try to elect Eckert's successor at a $100,000 annual sealory.

The owners tried for 13 hours without avail to name a new commissioner in a dusk-to-dawn marathon in Chicago commissioner in a dusa-codawn marathon in Chicago Dec. 20.

"I think it might be presumptious to say we will elect a commissioner at this next meeting," said Warren Giles, National League; Cabe Paul, president Joe Cronin of the American League; Gabe Paul, president of the Cleveland Indians: Walter O'Malley, president of the Los Angeles Dodgers, and Charles Segar, Eckert's executive secretary, attended yesterday's meeting.

Other action by the Executive Council Monday included: problems.

"This will be background for anything we recommend to the Congress," Hardin said. But he said general proposals from the new administration will not be forthcoming for two years, because the basic federal farm program will not expire until then.

Changes Party Affiliation
Campbell, 52, is Georgia's included:

Cronin and Giles picked, by lot, the order of selection of clubs in the secondary phase of the baseball free-agent draft set for Feb. 1 in New York.
The clubs will be notified of the selection order this week. Changes Party Allination Campbell, 52, is Georgia's commissioner of agriculture, an elected official who switched from the Democratic to the Republican party during the presidential campaign and declared his support for Nixon.

237-3351 Feature Times 2:30-5:45-9:00

ORCHIDS TO THE TEAM OF TEAMS FROM THE House of Entertainment

> DANCING EVERY MON. WED. FRI.

Lowest take out prices in town.

101 Chambers Experimenal $1.00

SCORPIO RISING - Anger THE FLICKER - Conrad THE MATTRESS - Feldman

COLLEGIAN CLASSIFIEDS

EXHAUSTED?

-UNDERSTANDING COMES FASTER WITH CLIFF'S NOTES!

OVER 175 TITLES $1 EACH AT YOUR BOOKSELLER

fect running conditi You set the price.

FOR SALE

ADVERTISING POLICY

DEADLINE

10:30 A.M. Day Before Publication

Cash Basis Only!

No Personal Ads!

OFFICE HOURS

9:30 A.M. - 4:00 P.M. Monday through Friday

Basement of Sackett North Wing

$1.25

RATES

Each additional consecutive Each additional 5 words .15 per day

You set the price.

LEE HARVEY Oswald—hear him defend GIANT 3" PORTABLE TV and AM-FM Castro shortly before killing J.F.K.; YAF-radio. Works on batteries or AC. $100. meeling, 8 p.m. 217-218 HUB Wednesday, Call 237-0908.

RADIAL TIRES: Pirelli, Semperit, Con-THESIS AND report typing. Printing, Inlental, Getzler and Avon. Free guaran linental, Getzler and Avon. Free guaran lee; discount prices! 328-7335.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE

DAFTING BOARDS, books (some science).

BOARDERS WANTED, double room, $120 movie camera, speed reading course, tire Per man per term, winter and spring terms, Call 237-0102.

MAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

MAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 237-1043.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 238-408.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 238-408.

DEAN—WITH Car—salary plus commission. Dean's Fast Delivery, Dial 238-408.

DE

FOR RENT

LUXURY LIVING this summer. 3 bedroom apartment. Swimming pool, T.V., 237-4312.
book shelves, cooking utensils and many more extras. Save yourself time and trouble. Call now, 237-1619.

HELP WANTED

DISHWASHER'S HELPER 3 or 6 days a week. All meals—social privileges. Caferer week. All meals—social privileges. Caferer week. All meals—social privileges. Caferer
the social caferer at 238-9954.

ATTENTION

""" WILL THE person who "borrowed" the 1960 slide trays from a car in TKE parking lot GET YOUR Spring "Girl-Getter" 1960 slide trays from a car in TKE parkin Triumph TR3. Excellent body and in per-please keep the trays and return fect running condition. Call Allen 237-1619, slides. J. Tait, RD Centre Hall, Pa.

WANTED

HELP WANTED

PARKING FOR car. Block from AG Hill. HELP WANTED: Waiters work 2 meals Stop 147 E. Park or call 238-3740. NOTICE

KARATE CLUB opens classes again in Rec. Hall, We Inivide everyone to attend at any time. Sunday and Wednesday, 7:30

3000 Pierced Earrings GUY BRITTON Next to Murphy's

STEVE MCQUEEN

M SUGGESTED FOR MATURE ADDIENCES TECHNICOLOR® FROM WARNER BROS.-SEVEN ARTS 🖘 🕡

1:40-3:36-5:32 7:28-9:24

Feature Time 1:30-3:30-5:30

It Is So Good We are hold-ing it over for a 3rd Week

vs. The Over-Thirties! The Undergraduates

LOLA ALBRIGHT • CHAD EVERETT • DZZIE NELSON • CRISTINA FERRARE

Job Interviews Set for Students

ME, Math, Physics

Babcock & Wilcox, Jan 22 & 23, Cere, ChE, CE, EE, EngrMech, IE, ME, Metal, NuE

Caterpiliar Tractor, Jan 22, Matb, Most Bus, Engr & LA majors
Martin Marietta Corp, Jan 22-24, AeroE, EE, EngrSc, ME, Grad degrees in CE, Physics
MPR Assoc, Jan 22, Most Engr majors Penna Llauor Control Brd, Jan 22 & 23, Any major

"Public Serv Elect & Gas Co, Jan 22, ChE, CE, EE, IE, ME

"Sun Oil Co, Jan 22 & 23, Most majors Universal Oil Products, Jan 22, ChE, EE, ME
U.S. Navai Ordnance Station, Jan 22, Most majors
U.S. Public Health Serv, Jan 22, Most non-tech majors
American Smelting & Refining, Jan 23, ChE, ME, Metal
Clites Service Oil, Jan 23 & 24, Acctg, BusAd, Bustog, ChE, CE, Econ, EE, Fin, IE, ME, PetroE, Mktg, ME, PhD degrees in Chem, Microbiol Gulf Oil, Jan 23 & 24, ChE, Ceol, Geophy, ME
Humble Oil, Jan 23 & 24, ChE, CompSc, Geol, EngrMech, EngrSc, ME, Met EE, EngrMech, EngrSc, ME, Met EE, EngrMech, EngrSc, ME, Met E. Representatives of more than 60 business firms and school districts will be on campus to interview students interested in applying for currently listed positions. Curriculum abbreviations following the interview date represent majors the firm desires to interview, and not specific job titles. Additional information on listed posispecific job titles. Additional information on listed positions is available in 12 Grange Building. An appointment card and personal information sheet should be submitted approximately 10 days prior to the date of each information when desired in General view desired in General Placement. Sign-up sheets are available for desired in-terviews in Teacher Placement.
*Denotes employers who will also be interviewing for certain summer posi-

GENERAL PLACEMENT
*Atlantic Breeders Coop, Jan 20, 2 yr Add Address Coop, Jan 20, 2 yr Ag Atlantic Richfield, Jan 20, BusAd, LA, Mktg

Allantic Richtfeld, Jan 20, BusAd, LA, Mxig
Bunker Ramo, Jan 20, EE — BS, MS, PhD

E. I. du Pont, Jan 20-23, Most majors
Fidelity Mutual Life Ins Co, Jan 20,
Any major
Green Construction Co, Jan 20, BusAd,
CE, ME
Lane Construction Co, Jan 20, CE, ME
New York Air Brake, Jan 20, EE, ME
Philadelphia Nat'l Bank, Jan 20, Most majors, MBA
Pratt & Whitney Aircraft, Jan 20 & 21,
Most lech majors Piniadelpina Nat'l Bank, Jan 20, Most majors, MBA
Pratt & Whilmey Aircraft, Jan 20 & 21, Most lect majors
RCA, Jan 20 & 21, Acctg, BusAd, CompSc, Fin. LA, Math, Pers, Sc, Any Engr, MBA
Rotal Engr Co, Jan 20, CE, EE, ME
Square D. Co, Jan 20, CE, EE, ME
Toledo Ecisen Co, Jan 20, CE, EE, ME
Square D. Co, Jan 20, CE, EE, ME
Square D. Co, Jan 20, Cet, EE, ME
Square D. Co, Jan 20, Cet, EE, ME
Lengr, Medical Specialist Corps, Jan 20, Diet Food Serv, Sc with Jan 21, Any Engr Math
Buffalo Forse Co, Air Cond Div, Jan 21, Any Engr
DeKalb Agriculture Assoc, Jan 21, Most Ag majors
Gleason Works, Jan 20, Bus Ad, EE, Engr Mech, IE, Ind Rel, Math, ME
Joy Mfg Co, Jan 21, IE, ME, MinE, MBA with tech BS
Ohlo Dept of Hishways, Jan 21, Any Engr major
Sanders Assoc, Jan 21, Acctg, CompSc, EE, Met, Met, PhysSc
United Aircraft Res Labs, Jan 21 & 22, Most tech majors
West Penn Power, Jan 21, CE, EE, ME, HomeE
Arthur Young & Co, Jan 21, Any major with 12 crds in Acctg

Arthur Young & Co, Jan 21, Any major with 12 crds in Accig U.S. Naval Weapons Lab, Jan 21, EE,

STANLEY WARNER

2nd BIG WEEK!

Direct from න its reserved-seat engagement.

Winner of 3 Academy Awards!

ONN ROUSCOTT ALAN JAY LERNER - FREDERICK LOEWS - MOSS HART JOHN ROUSCOTT FREDERICK LOEWE · ALAN JAY LERNER · JOSHUA LOGAN · JACK L. WARNER

TECHNICOLOR® PANAVISION® FROM WARNER BROS.-SEVEN ARTS W

NOW . . . 1:30-3:30-5:30-7:30-9:30

THE STORY OF THREE STRANGERS...A MOTHER...A FATHER...AND A SON

Jack Albertson · Martin Sheen Frank D. Gilroy. Edgar Lansbury. Ulu Grosbard

MATTI TONITE

Hear Judy Collins sing "Albatross" and
"Who Knows Where The Time Goes?"

7:30 - 9:20 ■ in the tradition of "ALFIE" and "MORGAN" ■

Metrocolor @

